Part II

Other Ministerial Support

1. EPISCOPAL FUND:

The Episcopal Fund as set by the General Conference shall be an amount equal to $1\frac{3}{4}$ per cent of the salary of the pastor and ministerial assistants for the current year.

2. SALARIES FOR DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS:

(a) We recommend: That the annual salary of each of the seven District Superintendents shall be set at $6,300.00, including expenses attendant to his office.

(b) That 5 per cent of a sum equal to the amount estimated for the then current Conference year for the salary of the pastor and assistant pastor, if any, of each and every charge in the Conference, be apportioned to each charge, said sum to be remitted to the Conference Treasurer for the payment of District Superintendents' salaries.

3. THE BOARD OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS requests an apportionment of an amount equal to 15 per cent of the salary of the pastor and all ministerial assistants, also an assessment of 1 per cent against the salary of each member of the Conference in full connection and active service.

4. MINISTERS' RETIREMENT FUND requests an apportionment of an amount equal to 1 per cent of the pastor's salary for current year.

The items 1, 2, 3 and 4 above equal $23\frac{3}{4}$ per cent of pastor's salary. Based on 1950-51 salaries the total raised would approximate \$203,612.00.

5. MINIMUM SALARY FUND (formerly called Sustentation Fund):

We recommend the apportionment to each charge of a sum equal to 3 per cent of "the total money raised," or equal to $\frac{3}{7}$ of the Orphanage apportionment as in paragraph 1, Part III. It is anticipated that approximate payment of this apportionment will be \$53,130.00.

Part III

Other Conference Benevolences

1. ORPHANAGE:

We recommend the apportionment to each charge of an amount equal to 7 per cent of "the total money raised" by the charge in the Conference Year 1946-1947 as reported in our 1947 Journal, less the following five items:

Statistical Table 2-A—Amount paid on Indebtedness including Principal and Interest

Statistical Table 2-A—Amount paid on Buildings and Improvements

Statistical Table 2-B—Amount paid Schools and Colleges

Statistical Table 2-B—Amount paid on Crusade for Christ

All special gifts for endowment purposes made either to the Local Church or the orphanage.

All orphanage specials, except that raised by the Woman's Society of Christian Service, are to be credited on the 7 per cent asking.

We further recommend that in order to have the apportionments uniformly calculated that the Business Manager of the Orphanage have the calculations made for each charge, inform each charge of the amount, and furnish each District Superintendent with a report for his District. Further, that the Business Manager be authorized to notify each charge quarterly of its credits and balance of apportionment for the Conference year.

It is anticipated that exact payment of this apportionment will provide the Orphanage with $124,000.00.

2. HOSPITALS AND HOMES: FOR GOLDEN CROSS AND METHODIST RETIREMENT HOME:

We recommend the apportionment to each charge a sum equal to 3 per cent of "the total money raised" as in paragraph 1, or equal to 3/7 of the amount of the orphanage apportionment to be remitted to the Conference Treasurer. The proceeds of this apportionment to be divided 1 per cent to Golden Cross and 2 per cent to Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., and paid to the Treasurers of the Golden Cross Fund and the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. (for central home for the aged in Durham). Total apportionment $53,130.00.

The local church is urged to observe Mother's Day and to apply the offering toward this twin fund, the total of the apportionment to be provided for by this or other means.

3. CHURCH EXTENSION:

We recommend the apportionment to each charge of a sum equal to 2 per cent of "the total money raised" as defined above. This sum to be used by the Board of Missions and Church Extension to extend the church in the North Carolina Conference. To be remitted to the Conference Treasurer. Approximate apportionment $35,400.00.

4. COLLEGE SUSTAINING FUND:

We recommend the apportionment to each charge of 3½ per cent of the total money raised as in paragraph 1, or an amount equal to one-half of the amount of the Orphanage apportionment, to be remitted to the Conference Treasurer, the matter of distribution among our colleges to be left to the Board of Education. It is anticipated that approximate payment of this apportionment will amount to $62,000.00.

The total apportionments in Part III equal 15½ per cent of the total money raised as herein defined, and are estimated to total $274,100.00.

5. CAMP DON-LEE BUILDING FUND:

We recommend that each pastoral charge accept a goal, toward the completion of construction at Camp Don-Lee, of an amount equal to 1/8 of the acceptances of that charge for World Service and Conference Benevolences for the year 1948-1949. We further recommend that each pastoral charge complete its entire responsibility toward building Camp Don-Lee for this quadrennium by accepting as a goal for the quadrennium an amount equal to ½ of their acceptance for World Service and Conference Benevolences for 1948-1949, with the option of paying the entire amount in one, two, three or four years. We request the District Superintendents to submit this plan to each pastoral charge.

Part IV

1. THE METHODIST COLLEGE FOUNDATION OF NORTH CAROLINA, INC.:

We recommend that the program of this organization have the hearty support of the Conference; that the purposes and functions of the Foundation as outlined therein be approved.

2. THE INTER-CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON CHURCH BUILDING AT FAIRMONT CHURCH, RALEIGH, and COLLEGE PLACE CHURCH, GREENSBORO:

We approve the plans of this commission to solicit funds in a special campaign for the purpose of additional buildings at the above points.

3. WESLEY FOUNDATION:

We recommend approval of the request of the WESLEY FOUNDATION for the privilege of soliciting the Alumni, parents of the Methodist students, and others who desire to make special gifts for the benefit of student work in state-supported institutions.

4. METHODIST YOUTH FELLOWSHIP:

We approve the request of this Conference organization for permission to raise approximately $2,500 for a station wagon for official youth work. To be raised by special activities of the Youth.

5. CHURCH SCHOOL RALLY DAY OFFERING:

We approve the objective of the Board of Education to raise an expected $8,000 with the goal in each local charge being an amount equal to 1% of the pastor's salary.

SUPPLEMENTARY BUDGET ITEMS:

We approve retroactively the sum of $466.35 paid to defray the expenses of the Special Investigating Committee appointed at the last Conference.

Reference is made to the allocation in last annual report of several items totaling $16,000.00 to be paid from funds on hand at the end of this Conference year. After the payment of the above we authorize the items below in their numerical order.

1. Conference entertainment expenses, the amount in excess of $2,500.00.
2. For printing Conference Calendar, and Worksheet for charge treasurers, and mimeographing of this Commission's tentative report, estimated $150.00.
3. To meet the added cost of printing Conference journal, $600.00.
4. Board of Evangelism, $1,500.00.
5. Commission on Town and Country Work, $350.00.

The sum total of all funds included herein is slightly in excess of $729,000.00.

BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

Report No. 1

The 1948 Discipline of The Methodist Church reads as follows in Paragraph 1166: "The supreme aim of missions is to make the Lord Jesus Christ known to all peoples in all lands as their divine Saviour, to persuade them to become his disciples, and to gather these disciples into Christian churches; to enlist them in the building of the Kingdom of God; to cooperate with these churches; to promote world Christian fellowship; and to bring to bear on all human life the spirit and principles of Christ."

Your Board of Missions and Church Extension has tried earnestly to carry out the purpose for which it was created, to promote the cause of missions at home and abroad. A glance at the reports of the district superintendents will show we have made spiritual progress as reflected in the addition of some 5540 new members on profession of faith and 2856 by certificate. Our district missionary institutes can be made very meaningful in the promotion and development of the cause and spirit of missions. The Conference Missionary Secretary, Rev. Leon Russell, has planned such a series for the month of February. The study book for this year should have an especial appeal to the North Carolina Conference, since it was prepared by Dr. Mason Crum of Duke University, and is a comprehensive study of the "Negro in The Methodist Church." We trust this book will have a wide distribution, and that these institutes will elicit a large attendance in every district.

According to the report of the treasurer of the Methodist Advance, there has been a sizable increase in the funds received for this cause during the year. There has been turned in for Overseas Relief $8,072.62; for Week of Dedication $8,115.37; Home and Foreign Missions specials, $32,605.39, and undirected for Home Missions $4,087.59, making a total of $52,880.97 reported to date on the Methodist Advance, and there will be additions to these figures when all reports have been received.

The Board has allocated and paid the following amounts from the various funds instructed to it for this conference year:

|------------------------|-------------|
| Missions Funds | $ 5,335.27 |
| plus, from Duke Funds | 13,400.00 |
| Church Extension Funds | 33,091.45 |
| Minimum Salary Fund | 37,701.33 |

An itemized statement of these receipts and disbursements can be had by referring to the report of the Treasurer of this Board.

Through the generosity of our Methodist people, this board has been able to meet every request for salary supplement. However, there has been such activity in building and improvement programs we have not been able to meet all requests for this cause, but have gone as far as our funds would permit. We sincerely trust the conference will be able to provide more money for the establishment of new churches and for Church Extension in general. We are glad to report the beginning of three new church projects for the coming year, one in Durham, one in Burlington, and one in Kinston. There are several other places where we need a church, but we are limited in our financial assistance. We urge our ministers and laymen not to apply to the board for assistance if it is possible for the local church to meet the need, in order that these funds may be used for purely missionary projects.

The month of January has been set aside as Good Literature Month and proper emphasis should be given to all publications of our church, with special efforts to increase the number of subscriptions to the North Carolina Christian Advocate and the World Outlook.

We commend the fine work of our Conference missionary secretary and the district missionary secretaries in promoting the spirit and cause of missions throughout the conference.

We recommend the following minimum salary scale:

|---------------------------------|------------|
| Single men | $2,400.00 |
| Married men without children .. | 2,600.00 |
| Married men with children | 2,800.00 |

On recommendation of the cabinet and the vote of the Board of Missions and Church Extension, funds may be used from the Minimum Salary Fund to cover the necessary cost of differences in conditions, and other variants, as provided in the discipline.

We nominate Rev. Leon Russell to succeed himself as Conference Missionary Secretary.

We nominate Rev. T. M. Vick, Jr., and Rev. J. W. Lineberger as members of the Board of Managers of the N. C. Conference Pastors' School.

We also nominate Rev. J. E. Garlington and Mr. M. B. Smith as members of the General Board of Missions and Church Extension; and Rev. A. S. Parker and Mr. Stacey Weaver as members of the Jurisdictional Board.

A list of the appropriations and a copy of the treasurer's report are attached hereto.

Report No. 2

IN APPRECIATION OF JAMES CRAIG BRASWELL

For more than forty years James Craig Braswell was a loyal member of the Board of Missions of the North Carolina Conference, and he served as its Treasurer from 1921 until his death in April, 1951.

A gentleman of the old school and of the old South, J. C. Braswell made his influence felt in the groups he touched, and this was particularly true in the Board of Missions. He was deeply interested in the preachers who were serving charges that could not pay a minimum salary, and always quick to champion their cause. His long years of experience as a banker taught him money values, and he was always insistent that Board money be used wisely, and that a reserve fund be built up against the day of financial depression, that those dependent on this fund might not suffer.

His faithfulness to detail was evidenced in the Treasurer's reports that he presented annually. These reports could serve as models for any business office. No detail escaped his remarkable mind, and even in his latter years when his body became feeble his mind retained unusual clarity. He possessed an ageless attitude toward life. His interest in all about him, young and old alike, made him often sought out for counsel and advice, and this he gave unstintingly, but never unless asked. He never wanted to dominate a meeting and his innate modesty kept him oftentimes from speaking on matters in which he was well versed, but when his opinion was sought he expressed it without bias and without fear.

James Craig Braswell possessed a calmness and a serenity that made him a veritable tower of strength. He was never disturbed by petty annoyances, but his gift of far-sightedness enabled him to see beyond the affairs of today, and to note the trends of the future. He was conservative, in the best sense of the word, in that he recognized the true values and the elements of our civilization that needed to be preserved, yet he never sacrificed progress for the sake of maintaining the status quo.

His hospitality was famous. He loved people and felt that each member of the Board of Missions was his warm, personal friend. He delighted in entertaining the Executive Committee in his own home, and when that was no longer possible, often invited the group to be his guest at one of the local dining rooms. Many of the meetings of the Board of Missions were held in his town, but regardless of the meeting place, J. C. Braswell was always present. Rarely in more than forty years has a meeting of the Board been held without him. His physical presence will be keenly missed, but his spirit and influence are indelibly impressed upon this Board.

REPORT NO. 2

Educational Institutions

Our educational institutions express appreciation to the churches of the North Carolina Conference for their support of the College Sustaining Fund and to the Board of Education for its continued support. They hope that the Conference will support the United College Appeal to the end that the $1,000,000 quota for the Conference for the participating institutions may be fully realized. They pledge their endeavor at all times to fulfill the trust placed in them by the Church in promoting Christian leadership among their students.

Greensboro College: The scholastic year ending May 28, 1951, was a memorable year in the long history of the institution. Notable achievements were consummated. Two new buildings were completed. The James Addison Jones Library and the Arts and Science buildings have been in use since January 3, 1951. With them have come renewal of faith, exhilaration of spirit, and rededication to the highest in academic, moral, and spiritual development. Much remains to be done, purchase and installation of additional equipment, reorganization of the uses of previously existing spaces and facilities, and so forth; but what has already been accomplished means the fulfillment of some of the long-cherished dreams for the College, and there is widespread rejoicing and deep gratitude.

The completion of the installation of the new three-manual Austin organ in Odell in April is another achievement of note, which was celebrated with a public organ recital on April 24.

A total of 415 students representing eight states composed the student body. North Carolina furnished 88.3 per cent of the total. Eleven denominations were represented, the Methodist leading with 80.7 per cent.

The statistics for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1951, are as follows: Officers and teachers, 51; students enrolled, 415; value of property, $1,946,455.41; endowment, $651,659.53; no indebtedness.

Louisburg College: During the 1950-51 session 41% of the students received some financial assistance. During the 1951-52 session 30% will receive some financial assistance. The decrease is in line with the action of the Board of Trustees that student costs should not be increased but that financial aid should be decreased.

The members of the faculty and administrative staff are rendering excellent service. The salary scale for the present session has been placed approximately on a par with similar salaries in the Public Schools of North Carolina. The trustees have placed the members of the college staff under Social Security, and, for the first time, the College members are receiving retirement benefits.

Louisburg College plans to request a survey this year by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and one requirement for accrediting is that there shall be financial stability. The Conference appropriations for the past two years have materially aided the College in this respect, and Conference and church appropriations are about the only sources whereby the College can acquire funds for current operations other than student fees. Expenses are kept at a minimum, and increase in student costs would work hardships on patronage served by the College. Funds for current operations and for modernization of the plant are the present greatest needs of the College.

The statistics for the fiscal year, 1950-1951, are as follows: Officers and teachers, 23; students enrolled, 232; value of property, $594,020; endowment, $155,302; indebtedness, none.

High Point College: During the scholastic year, 1950-1951, the College enrolled 62 ministerial students, 21 children of ministers, 12 children from orphanages. The College made concessions to these groups totaling $7,669.42. These figures do not include 30 girls who were majoring in Religious Education but for whom no money was available for concessions.

The academic program has been strengthened during the past two years. The education and degrees of the faculty have been increased appreciably. Additional professors with Ph.D. degrees have been employed. Admission requirements have been raised, and academic requirements have been increased. These higher standards, along with the loss of men students to military service, will bring about a sizeable decrease in the total enrollment until such time that the G. I. students begin to return. The effect of this decreased enrollment upon the revenues of the College is obvious. It is the earnest hope and belief of the College that the N. C. Annual Conference will stand by it and give it adequate support during this period of decreased revenues from student fees.

The statistics for the fiscal year ending May 31, 1951, are as follows: Officers and teachers, 56; students enrolled in Summer School, 498; Extension, 110; Regular Session, 765; total student enrollment, 1373. Of the enrollment in the regular sessions, 95 per cent of the students were from North Carolina. Of this group, 54 per cent were Methodist students. Value of property, $1,128,351.79; endowment, $547,496.61, an increase of $29,512.70 during the year. During the fiscal year the College operated with a net surplus of $16,771.21. There is no long-term indebtedness.

Duke University: Duke University is one of the truly great universities of the nation and we are all proud of its origin and of its relation to The Methodist Church. We are most fortunate that this great university is located within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference. Its president is a member of our Conference Board of Education. He is seeking to keep the university close to The Methodist Church. The religious emphasis on the campus is perhaps unsurpassed by any great university in America. (The university is currently engaged in an $8,000,000 Development Campaign which is meeting with great success.)

The Divinity School has 17 full-time and 8 part-time instructors. The total enrollment is now 247 students, including 207 candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity, 13 candidates for the degree of Master of Religious Education, and 27 candidates for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Religion. One of the principal problems of the Divinity School is to secure scholarship aid for this very greatly increased number of theological students.

The Divinity School, representing the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, conducts each summer a School for Accepted Supply pastors. It sponsors the Christian Convocations held each year at the University, supplying especially the James A. Gray Lectures. A Ministers' Loan Library for the use and benefit of ministers in service is also operated. The Phillips Brooks Club, a study group for ministers in service, is conducted under the auspices of the Divinity School. Extension seminars are conducted each year, one in each of the Carolina Conferences. The seminar for the North Carolina Conference for the present year will be conducted at Greenville, North Carolina, January 21 and 22.

Statistics for the year ending June 30, 1951, are as follows: Officers and teachers, not including assistants, 614; number of students for the academic year 1950-1951, 5,047; number of students for Summer School 1950, 1,577. Assets: Current Fund (net), $358,154.21; expendable special funds, $1,755,605.42; fund functioning as endowment, $14,242,669.61; endowment funds, $4,281,410.30; endowed special funds, $521,502.94; scholarship funds, $955,315.94; student loan funds, $518,323.47; Duke University Development Fund, $3,701,291.08; plant funds (investment in plant, $39,279,348.09 and balance of funds, reserved for plant additions, $1,215,376.10), $40,494,724.19; agency funds, $374,761.12; total assets as of June 30, 1951, $67,203,758.28.

Local Church

The Board of Education of the North Carolina Conference expresses its sincere appreciation for the work done during the past year by our Executive Secretary and his staff. Much that has been accomplished has been the result of the leadership of Rev. C. P. Morris. Every phase of the educational program of the church has received careful attention and promotion—children, youth and adult. The following are revealing figures of the accomplishments in the field of Christian Education for the conference year 1950-1951: 558 Vacation Church Schools; 31,958 enrolled in Vacation Church Schools; 743 in the Intermediate Campus; 493 in Senior and Older Youth Assemblies at Louisburg; 79 Young Adults attended Camp Don-Lee; 80 courses in Christian Workers Schools were taught; 2,419 were enrolled for these courses; 1,309 received credit for these courses; 3,197 church school pupils joined the church by profession of faith; $1,220 was received for the Children's Building at Lake Junaluska; over $3,000 was received for Church School Rally Day; $1,711 received on Race Relations Day; $814.00 received on Methodist Student Day; $7,318 received on the Methodist Youth Fund.

We pledge our cooperation to the Executive Secretary, Rev. C. P. Morris and all the members of his staff.

We have examined the financial records of the Methodist Camp Fund through September 30, 1951, and have prepared the attached Cash Receipts and Disbursement statement for this period.

All recorded receipts were traced into the depository and all disbursements were checked by examination of cancelled checks.

The cash balance at September 30, 1951, was verified by reconciliation of the bank statement at that date.

Reverend Thomas McM. Grant, Secretary
North Carolina Conference
Rocky Mount, North Carolina
Dear Sir:

We have audited the books and financial records of Mr. Gurney P. Hood, Treasurer of the Methodist College Foundation of North Carolina, Incorporated, for the fiscal year ended November 30, 1951. In connection therewith we have prepared the accompanying cash receipts and disbursements statement for publication in the Conference Journal of Proceedings.

In our opinion, the accompanying statement presents fairly the balances of unexpended funds of the Methodist College Foundation of North Carolina, Incorporated, at November 30, 1951, and the cash transactions for the year then ended.

Respectfully submitted,

A. M. PULLEN & CO.

REPORT OF THE INTERCONFERENCE COMMISSION ON STUDENT RELIGIOUS WORK (WESLEY FOUNDATION)

The Interconference Commission on Student Religious Work (Weslev Foundation) of the Western North Carolina and North Carolina Conferences of The Methodist Church has sought to give general oversight to the program of student religious work in the institutions of higher learning within the state during the past year. The Commission has administered financial aid for student work at nine of these institutions, namely: Duke University at Durham, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, State College at Raleigh, W.C.U.N.C. at Greensboro, Eastern Carolina College at Greenville, A.S.T.C. at Boone, Western N. C. State Teachers College at Cullowhee, Davidson College at Davidson, and Catawba College at Salisbury.

We have not yet had a regular employed State Director for the past two years. Rev. Harold Higgs, Associate pastor of West Market Street Church, Greensboro, has served as our state director for the past year, receiving a small honorarium and travel allowance for his services. He has done a good job considering the limited time he has been able to give to this work.

He conducted the Fall Retreat at Greensboro on November 8, 1950, supervised the North Carolina Methodist Student Conference at High Point, February 9-11, 1951, sponsored the attendance of delegates to the Regional Student Conference at Lake Junaluska, June 5-12, conducted council meetings of the North Carolina Methodist Student Movement, and supervised the work of the North Carolina Methodist Student Movement.

We helped to support the work of the following full-time directors: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Allen at Duke University, Durham; Mr. David Swain at U.N.C., Chapel Hill; Rev. Lucius Hall at State College, Raleigh; and Miss Helen Terry at W.C.U.N.C., Greensboro. The W.S.C.S. of the North Carolina Conference supports Miss Mamie Chandler, deaconess, as a full-time worker at E.C.C., Greenville, and our Commission contributed to this work. The other institutions mentioned above received only $50.00 each for Methodist student religious work.

We are all indebted to these directors for the fine service they are rendering in providing students with a vital and effective Christian ministry. They have sought to keep our Methodist students in close contact with Christ and His Church during the critical period when they are away from home attending college. From this group must come not only our future Christian statesmen, business and professional men, teachers, farmers and the like, but also our future Christian ministers, missionaries and all our full-time Church workers. We should never underestimate the value and significance of the work being done by these directors.

The Commission received a total of $12,974.00 for this work the past year. This money came chiefly from the annual appropriations of the two conferences. A small contribution was received from the General Board of Education. The auditor's report, together with an itemized list of proposed appropriations for the year 1951-1952, is attached to this report. The requested appropriation for this year is $650.00 ($390.00 for the Western N. C. Conference and $260.00 for the N. C. Conference) larger than the appropriation for the past year. This slight increase is necessary to enable the Commission to fulfill its present commitments and to continue the same program as projected the past year.

The Commission faces two great financial needs which we hope will be met by larger appropriations by the two conferences at the beginning of the new quadrennium next year. First of all, we need a full-time state director. We must have this if we are to keep pace with other conferences and if the program of student religious work in the institutions of higher learning within the state is to be adequately supervised and expanded.

Secondly, we need more money to carry on the work at these various institutions. More money is needed for building, equipment, maintenance, and salaries at each of these institutions. New work needs to be opened up at other institutions. With these needs in mind, the Commission, at its May 1951 meeting, appointed a Committee, consisting of Dr. W. A. Kale, Dr. A. P. Brantley, Rev. Carl King, Rev. C. P. Morris, and Dr. W. A. Stanbury, to survey the needs of the colleges and universities served by the Commission and to draw up a statement of these needs to be submitted to the Commission of World Service and Finance of the two conferences in 1952, looking toward increased appropriations for the new quadrennium. It is our earnest hope that the two supporting conferences will look with favor upon this report when it is presented next year and thereby help to strengthen the program for our Methodist students in the colleges and universities of North Carolina.

In conclusion we would like to express our appreciation to Dr. J. W. Cell of State College, Raleigh, a member of the Commission, who served so efficiently as Secretary-Treasurer of the Commission, following the death of Rev. J. C. Phillips, from May 1950 through May 1951. He has been succeeded by Rev. C. P. Morris, Executive Secretary of the Board of Education of the North Carolina Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

W. A. STANBURY, Chairman

C. P. MORRIS, Secretary-Treasurer

BOARD OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS

Report No. 1

Report of Committee on Endowment for Conference Claimants

Present efforts of our Conference to support its retired ministers are directed through the Conference Claimants Fund, the Minister's Retirement Fund, and the securing of retirement homes in the various districts. The proposed central Retirement Home is for the aged generally. While this is designed to help meet a real need, it should not be considered a part of the Conference's provision for retired ministers.

The committee believes that the efforts of the Conference to support superannuates should be concentrated on:

1. Increasing and stabilizing annuities.
2. Increasing the number of individual retirement homes in the districts.
3. Enlisting the participation of all ministers and churches in the Ministers' Retirement Fund.

II. That the method of increasing and stabilizing annuities be to continue the present plan of apportionments to the churches for distribution to the claimants on a current basis, with continuing efforts to secure the understanding and support of our people for this cause.

III. That to increase the amount available for current distribution to the claimants an assessment of 1% be made against the salary of each ministerial member of the conference in full connection and active service. (rf. 1948 Discipline, Par. 1612, Sec. 4.)

And that the apportionments to the churches for the ensuing conference year be increased by 1% (from 14% to 15%) in order that the total amount available for current distribution shall be substantially increased.

Report No. 2

For the support of the superannuates, their wives and dependent children your Board recommends that an amount equal to 15% of the salaries paid all pastors and their clerical assistants who are members of the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church be assessed against all charged of said Conference and be sent to the Conference Treasurer, who shall administer the same as provided in the Discipline.

And that an assessment of 1% against all pastors and their clerical assistants who are members of the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church be assessed against them.

J. R. STATON, President
 W. R. STEVENS
 D. M. SHARPE, Treasurer

Report No. 3

We are happy to report that we are able to increase our annuity rate to $38.00 for the year 1951-52. This means that we have reached disciplinary rate. We hope to be able to pay $40.00 for 1952-53, which will probably be necessary in order to continue disciplinary rate with increasing salaries. We wish to express our appreciation for the presence and assistance of Dr. J. W. Crichlow from the General Board of Pensions.

The following claimants have died during the year: R. Ernest Atkinson, Cicero H. Caviness, Jesse L. Cuninggim, Thomas E. Davis, Guy Hamilton, Eljah L. Stack, Mrs. C. O. Armstrong, Mrs. Guy Hamilton, Mrs. E. N. Harrison, Mrs. D. A. Watkins, and Mrs. J. E. Bristowe.

The books of the Treasurer of the Board of Conference Claimants and Secretary-Treasurer of the Ministers' Retirement Fund have been audited by a certified accountant and his report is being filed.

The following officers of the Board of Conference Claimants have been elected: J. A. Staton, Chairman; D. M. Sharpe, Treasurer; and W. R. Stevens, Secretary.

Your board urges the accepted supply pastors to take advantage of and participate in the Ministers' Retirement Fund.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. STATON, Chairman
 W. R. STEVENS, Secretary
 D. M. SHARPE, Treasurer

MINISTERS' RETIREMENT FUND

Treasurer's Report

615 Swift Avenue
Durham, North Carolina
December 10, 1951

Mr. John M. Dozier, Treasurer
Ministers' Retirement Fund
Durham, North Carolina

Dear Mr. Dozier:

I have made an examination of the Cash Receipts and Disbursements of the Ministers' Retirement Fund for the year ending November 30, 1951, and submit the attached statement of receipts and disbursements for that period.

All disbursements were verified by examination of cancelled checks (except for one outstanding check numbered "94"). All recorded cash receipts were traced into the bank account. Both receipts and disbursements were traced into the respective ministers' ledger accounts. Cash in the Fidelity Bank, Durham, North Carolina, on November 30, 1951, was verified by reconciliation of the statement furnished by the bank. Investments in Building and Loan Stock and U. S. Savings Bonds were verified by inspection. The first mortgage loan was verified by correspondence with the Church Treasurer.

The attached statement showing payments to the Ministers' Retirement Fund by individuals and by charges was verified by a check to the individual accounts.

Based upon the examination made, it is my opinion that the attached cash receipts and disbursements statement show correctly the financial transactions of the Ministers'

Retirement Fund for the year 1950-51 and that the balance as shown on November 30, 1951 is correct.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES F. COUSINS

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

Report No. 1

Your Board feels keenly its responsibilities in connection with the great needs confronting our Church here in the North Carolina Conference. Among these is the challenging opportunity to support, in an adequate manner, our Methodist Colleges. Methodist laymen are and must be true stewards for this, as well as other causes of our church.

We rejoice that progress has been made during the past year in reducing the number of churches to be served as a charge and look forward confidently to the time when our goal of not more than three churches on any one charge shall be attained. Your Board pledges its continued support to this worthy objective and to that end will continue diligently to work for the enlistment of more young people as full time servants of our Lord and Master.

It is with pleasure that we report splendid results in the observance of Laymen's Day. Many of our charges are having this occasion observed in more than one church on the disciplinary date and we believe that the time is not long before we may be able to report that every church on every charge in the bounds of this Conference has had such a service.

The Board of Lay Activities promises an extension of its efforts to assist our pastors and district superintendents by providing lay speakers whenever called upon for duty.

The annual Laymen's Retreat was held in August at Camp Don-Lee, with the largest and most enthusiastic response of any Retreat yet held. This project is one which we feel is bringing to the laymen of the Conference an increased awareness of their responsibilities and their opportunities to move out into greater fields of service. We recommend that every church use the occasion as one for the further development of at least one layman. The retreat for 1952 will be held at Louisburg College.

The organization of Methodist Men's Clubs continues as a primary aim. We have increased the number of such chartered Clubs in the year now ending and we believe that this phase of our work is going forward most satisfactorily.

Your Board has unanimously adopted a resolution requesting the Conference Delegation to the Jurisdictional Conference to use its best efforts to secure the assignment of Bishop Paul N. Garber, for the coming quadrennium, to the Richmond Area as our Resident Bishop.

Respectfully submitted,

W. JASPER SMITH, Chairman

SAM B. UNDERWOOD, Jr., Secretary

BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES

Report No. 1

The Board of Hospitals and Homes met in business session four times during the year. One of the meetings was held jointly with the District Golden Cross Committees. Although the chief business of our Board continued to be the promotion and supervision of the Golden Cross program in our Conference; one full session of our Board was devoted entirely to the interests of Methodist Retirement Homes.

We are glad to report that your Golden Cross program has now reached a state of usefulness for the needy sick where it reflects daily credit on the charity of this Conference. To insure this standard, additional funds were authorized withdrawn from invested surplus.

The Board is now sponsoring a summer chaplain in Duke Hospital.

We further report that the development of Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., is now moving toward physical reality, which will measurably broaden the base of our whole retirement service.

Recommendations

(1) We recommend that Golden Cross policies approved by the 1949 session of the Annual Conference be continued.

(2) We further recommend that the board be authorized to appropriate a sum not to exceed $800 for its hospital chaplaincy program this coming year.

(3) We believe that the Hospitals and Homes apportionment already approved by the Annual Conference will prove sufficient for our needs this coming year.

Report No. 2

The Methodist Orphanage

We recommend:

(1) That the Reverend Leon C. Larkin continue as Superintendent of the Orphanage, having been duly elected by the Board of Trustees.

(2) That the Orphanage apportionment remain same as last year.

(3) That as much of the apportionment as possible be raised early in the Conference year, preferably at the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons.

(4) That the following persons, having been nominated as Trustees of the Orphanage, the Conference elect them for the terms expiring as follows:

|--------------------------|------------------------|
| Reynolds May | Term to expire in 1955 |
| M. B. Smith | Term to expire in 1957 |
| John W. Hinsdale | Term to expire in 1957 |

THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

Your Conference Board of Evangelism recognizes a responsibility which no sincere Methodist minister can afford to ignore, or permit his people to overlook. Namely "The world will not be changed unless individual lives are changed. Hatred in foreign nations will not be conquered until hatred in millions of Americans is driven out by the redeeming love of Jesus Christ. Justice and integrity in foreign nations will not be achieved until justice and integrity become the consuming passion of America. Men must be changed! This is the hour to proclaim the evangelistic message from every pulpit, and to carry the Good News into millions of homes."

With this conviction upon our hearts we request your prayerful cooperation in the following objectives for the conference year 1951-52:

1. A Conference-wide Evangelistic Advance Rally as early in the Conference year as can be arranged by the Cabinet. This Conference-wide Evangelistic Advance Rally to be attended by pastors, lay leaders, superintendents of church schools, presidents of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and Wesleyan Service Guild, Secretaries of the Spiritual Life Groups of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and members of the local Boards of Evangelism and Membership.

This Conference-wide Rally to be followed by one-day District Retreats for ministers only, with only one objective, THE MINISTER AND HIS OWN SOUL.

2. During the month of January promote community surveys to locate all the unchurched. A thorough evangelistic advance is impossible without this survey.

3. Plan for the Week of Dedication beginning March 9, remembering that this will be one of our best evangelistic opportunities of the year.

4. Plan well for the observance of Lay Week Visitation Evangelism March 16-22.

5. Simultaneous Preaching Missions at that time most convenient for those cooperating. We wish to commend those district superintendents and pastors who have given us an example of what may be done through such an effort. All pastors are requested to cooperate with District Directors and the District Superintendent in planning these Preaching Missions.

6. Encourage all church school officers and teachers to cultivate a sense of responsibility for the salvation of all those whom they teach and with whom they work. Our pastors are urged to work with all church school leaders toward this goal. Consistent use of our Evangelistic literature, including The Upper Room and Shepherds, will help in this training program.

7. The home church must not overlook her opportunity and her responsibility in ministering to the spiritual needs of those serving in the Armed Forces.

8. Each pastor will be requested to make a report on Evangelism—using blank provided by the Conference Board of Evangelism—at the Fourth Quarterly Conference.

9. We recommend that Howard P. Powell be appointed Conference Secretary of Evangelism, without salary.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE

As the peoples of the earth move into the second half of the Twentieth Century, they are confronted with difficulties and problems along many lines. The nations of the earth are still plagued with wars and fears of wars. Hardships, privations, and poverty afflict many human beings. Frustrations and despair have overwhelmed many. Anxieties and fears are controlling the conduct of nations and individuals. Economically, socially, physically, morally, and spiritually, world conditions today are tragic. And one of the black spots today in world conditions and human experiences is the use of intoxicating beverages and the evils that the liquor traffic produces, including destruction of health, happiness, homes and everything else that is high and noble. And to this great enemy of humanity, the North Carolina Methodist Conference, in Session in Wilmington, November 3, 1951, reaffirms its opposition. We Methodists join all other right thinking peoples in opposition to the manufacture, sale and use of all alcoholic beverages and deplore the tragic fact that since the repeal of National Prohibition in 1933 and particularly since the legalization of liquor sales in certain areas in North Carolina in 1935, there has been a continuing increase in the sale of alcoholic beverages and there has been a continuing increase in drinking, drunkenness, and the many evils that are caused by liquor.

This Conference commends the helpful work that is being accomplished by Alcoholics Anonymous, and we urge our pastors and members to support that organization in the splendid work that it is accomplishing in the redemption and rehabilitation of many victims of strong drink.

This Conference reaffirms its endorsement of the Allied Church League, that has been organized by the churches of North Carolina for the purpose of combatting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors; and we urge all pastors and other church leaders and church members throughout our Conference to give full cooperation and support to the program and work of the Allied Church League.

Though we believe strongly in the value of education and salvation in promoting sobriety and righteousness, we appreciate the need and value of appropriate legislation in our efforts to combat the evils of the liquor traffic. Consequently, this Conference urges the 1953 General Assembly of North Carolina to enact the following legislation:

1. Since the citizens of our State voted overwhelmingly against Liquor in 1908 and also in 1933, and since, therefore, legislation to legalize liquor sales in our State was enacted contrary to the expressed will of our people, we urge the 1953 General Assembly to enact a statute to prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors throughout North Carolina; and, if the General Assembly be in doubt with respect to the wishes of the citizens of this state, we urge the 1953 General Assembly to enact a statute providing for a state-wide referendum on the issue of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in this state.

2. Since the purpose of advertising any merchandise is to increase its sale and use, we urge the 1953 General Assembly to enact a statute to prohibit the advertisement of all alcoholic beverages in newspapers or other publications, published in North Carolina, and to prohibit such advertisements on billboards on the highways and in all other places in our state.

3. Since a large majority of the counties in our state have demonstrated their opposition to the sale of intoxicating liquors, the 1953 General Assembly is urged to repeal the "gallon law" that legalizes and permits the shipment and transportation of whiskey to the extent of one gallon into dry counties. As a simple matter of common decency and fair government, neither the State of North Carolina nor the United States Government should permit whiskey to be shipped or otherwise transported into counties, in which the legal sale of intoxicants is not permitted.

4. As a means of improving instruction regarding the evils of alcoholic beverages, the 1953 General Assembly is urged to appropriate for the State Department of Public Instruction ample funds to provide for the employment of a competent person to supervise effective instruction in the public schools of the state regarding the evils of alcoholic beverages.

5. Since motor vehicle accidents on our highways are increasing to alarming proportions and since a large per cent of these highway accidents are caused by liquor drinking, the General Assembly is urged to enact drastic legislation against drunken driving. If a statute were enacted, requiring the imposition of a substantial prison sentence on every defendant found guilty of drunken driving, the enforcement of such legislation would decrease and almost stop completely this evil that is causing slaughter and death on our highways.

In order to aid in the program of alcoholic education, we urge all pastors to preach often in behalf of total abstinence and we urge that the subject of temperance be given a prominent place in the program of every District Conference and in all other conferences and meetings of our church. Also we urge that study classes be conducted in our Sunday Schools and in our church organizations; that literature and posters be obtained from our General Board of Temperance for use in Sunday Schools and churches; that every Sunday School and church in our Conference observe Commitment Day that is promoted and sponsored each year by our General Board of Temperance; that each church have a temperance committee charged with the responsibility of promoting temperance education in their respective churches and Sunday Schools; and that each District Superintendent appoint a District Temperance Committee, charged with the responsibility of selecting, training, and making available suitable temperance speakers and charged with the responsibility of promoting temperance education and other work in their respective districts.

Today there are many things that are destroying the influence and threatening the life of our church; and the liquor traffic is one of the forces that is helping to destroy everything for which our church stands. The liquor traffic would destroy the church, if it could; the church could destroy the liquor traffic, if it would. Hence, every person who is interested in the church should use his influence, his means, and his vote, against the liquor traffic. This Conference appeals to all pastors and all church members that they increase and make more effective their opposition to this nefarious business. As individuals, we Methodists should abstain absolutely from the use of alcoholic beverages. As members of society, we should vote and work to outlaw the liquor traffic. The attitude and the practice of individuals should be total abstinence. The attitude and the policy of government should be absolute prohibition. And to the achievement of total abstinence and absolute prohibition, we appeal to all Methodists and all other citizens in our country.

COMMISSION ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

Report No. 1

In order to promote and strengthen the work of our church in the towns and rural areas of our conference during the past year the Conference Commission on Town and Country Work has done the following:

1. Enlisted a large and representative delegation to attend The National Conference on Town and Country Work held in Sioux City, Iowa, July 21-24.
2. The Commission produced a booklet edited by Rev. M. R. Chambers on the trends, activities, and changes in conditions through the past few years.
3. The Commission has been active in its representation in the North Carolina Rural Church Institute.
4. The Commission employed Rev. M. R. Chambers to make a thorough study and report on the operations of the minimum salary fund since its inception, and furnish the Board of Missions and Church Extension with the findings.
5. A special committee from the Commission on Town and Country Work and a special committee from the Duke Divinity School formulated a policy and rules governing the use of the J. M. Ormond Fund. Proceeds from this fund are providing several scholarships in the Duke Divinity School for the first time this fall. The Commission authorized its chairman to appoint a rural research committee to provide subjects to the Divinity School in which research can be done that would further the cause of The Methodist Church in the towns and country sides of our Conference.

6. The Commission passed a memorial relative to the privilege to certain pastors in serving Communion to their members.

J. D. A. AUTRY

C. W. GOLDSTON

Report No. 2

1. The Commission on Town and Country Work requests the Conference to appropriate the amount of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for the running expenses of the Commission for the ensuing Conference year.

2. The Commission on Town and Country Work concurs with the Board of Missions and Church Extension in the new minimum salary schedule for the ensuing Conference year: $2,400 for single ministers, $2,600 for married ministers without children, and $2,800 for married ministers with one or more children.

3. The Commission on Town and Country Work concurs with the Board of Missions and Church Extension in its purpose to increase the minimum salary schedule for the Conference year 1952-1953 to $2,600 for single ministers, $2,800 for married without children, and $3,000 for married ministers with one or more children.

4. The Commission on Town and Country Work concurs with the Board of Missions and Church Extension in its current purpose to increase greatly the program of Church Extension in the Conference. The Commission confidently expects that rural church extension will be given equal consideration with urban and suburban work. It must ever be remembered that the rural church is the root of the entire Church enterprise in our Conference. The root must be kept alive and growing.

5. Pursuant to paragraph 1232 in the 1948 Discipline the Commission on Town and Country Work nominates Rev. J. D. A. Autry for Conference Secretary of Town and Country Work.

6. The Commission on Town and Country Work nominates and hereby asks Conference confirmation for the Committee on Rural Research, the personnel of the Committee to be: the Chairman of the Commission on Town and Country Work, Mrs. J. H. Cutchin, and Rev. Henry B. Lewis, and the Conference Secretary of Town and Country Work.

7. The circuit system which was once the strength of Methodism is now one of the major weaknesses. A great many strong churches now on circuits could be made stations, and many circuits should be divided. The preachers needed for such a program of church development can now be secured. The Commission on Town and Country Work requests the Conference to give serious, immediate, and constructive attention to this problem of large circuits.

8. The North Carolina Conference area has a large farm tenant population. The percentage of white farm families who are tenants is 44.2%. In some counties the figure reaches 70%. An adequate appraisal of an approach to this field of Church responsibility is long overdue. The Commission on Town and Country Work requests the Conference to give serious, immediate, and constructive attention to this significant frontier which is at hand.

9. The Commission on Town and Country Work takes this means to commend the Rev. C. Wade Goldston for his decision to devote his time to the ministry of evangelism in our Conference. Mr. Goldston will not only do regular revival work but will be available to conduct special spiritual life meetings in the churches to which he may be invited.

Without doubt the most urgent need we have in our Conference is for a real revival of vital religion. We are the moment encased in a routine of religious secondaries. However, there are significant signs that we may be standing on the threshold of revival. The calling to us in this hour surely is: "In the desert prepare a road for the Lord: make His highways straight." (Weymouth)

10. In the event that the principal fund grows substantially, added uses to that stated in point 4 may be specified by agreement between the parties named in point 3

REPORT OF C. W. GOLDSTON, TREASURER

Commission on Town and Country Work
For Fiscal Year Ended October 31, 1951

October 27, 1951

Mr. C. W. Goldston, Treasurer
Commission on Town and Country Work
North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church
Battleboro, North Carolina

Dear Sir:

I have examined the records kept by you as treasurer of the Commission on Town and Country Work for the fiscal year ended October 31, 1951, and have prepared therefrom the following statements showing the cash receipts and disbursements for the year and the cash balance at October 31, 1951:

EXHIBIT A—Statement of Cash Receipts and Disbursements for the Fiscal Year Ended October 31, 1951.

EXHIBIT B—Reconcilement of Bank Account—October 31, 1951.

The receipts as recommended in Part I and Part IV of the report of the Commission on World Service and Finance at the North Carolina Annual Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, November 4, 1950, were duly deposited in the bank. These appropriations, amounting to $1,200.00, were the only recorded receipts except for a refund of state intangible tax in the amount of $1.56.

The disbursements were represented by cancelled checks and supported by duly approved invoices. No attempt was made to verify the disbursements beyond the records presented by the treasurer.

In my opinion, subject to the above explanations, the attached statements present fairly the receipts and disbursements of the Commission on Town and Country Work for the fiscal year ended October 31, 1951.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE WORLD PEACE COMMITTEE

Report No. 1

The very name of the group that submits this report—the committee on World Peace—makes inescapable the necessity of dealing with world conditions as they affect World Peace. A state of emergency was declared some time ago by our National Government. Your committee on World Peace feels that it is time our church acts in like manner. The totally destructive war growing nearer by the day forbids Christians to continue business as usual. If the impending full-scale war is not averted, the Will of God will be tragically thwarted again. With this strong conviction your committee feels that a program of Education for World Peace should be sponsored in our Conference.

At a recent meeting of the Peace Committees of the Western North Carolina Conference and the North Carolina Conference it was decided that on February 4, 5, and 6, 1952, a series of Peace Institutes or Rallies be held through the two conferences. The purpose of which is to educate our people toward understanding the problems of the nations of the world. It was also decided that a United Nations Seminar be held at Lake Success in cooperation with the General Committee on World Peace, and that the three Conferences of North Carolina send delegates to this seminar.

We strongly urge that this session of the Annual Conference adopt the following recommendations:

1. An active Peace Committee be organized in every charge of the Conference. The members of this committee shall be as follows:

1. The Christian Social Relations Secretary (WSCS) by reason of her office.
2. The Third Commission Chairman (MYF) by reason of his office.
3. A veteran who in anxious that his children may be spared his experiences.
4. A teacher of social science in the public schools.
5. A teacher of an adult class in the Sunday School.
6. The pastor.
7. Any person whose interest or knowledge qualifies him.

The duties of this Committee shall be as follows:

1. Read carefully and discuss "The Methodist Church and War and Peace" adopted by the General Conference of 1948, and "A Message to Methodists in All Lands" adopted by the Commission on World Peace (740 Rush Street, Chicago) in November, 1950. These statements may be obtained free of charge from the Commission. They are fundamental and should make the committee members aware of the existence and character of the peace movement in Methodism.

2. Publicize the above mentioned documents in the church and community. In adult classes, youth meetings, men's clubs, etc., the documents should be read carefully and discussed, so that all Methodists think seriously about the issues set forth.

3. Persuade persons in the church to register their Christian opinion on the political level. The decisions making for war or peace are in the end political decisions. When issues are before Congress upon which our church has pronouncements, the peace committee should ask members of the church to write letters to Congressmen. At election time the committee should measure Congressional candidates by Methodist pronouncements and help people to cast their ballots in a spirit of consecrated study.

4. Observe in a special way United Nations Day and World Order Sunday. On this Sunday members of the committee may properly participate in the service. A United Nations flag may be displayed or dedicated. (For information concerning sizes and prices of a flag, write to your Conference Committee on World Peace.) The committee should seek to stimulate community organizations and to have a community-observance of United Nations Day and Week.

5. Make available to committee members and others good literature on peace themes and current issues, for example:

The United Nations Bulletin, official publication of the UN, $4.50 per year, Intern. Documents Service, Columbia University Press, 2960 Broadway, New York 27, N. Y.

The United Nations Reporter, $1.00 per year, American Association for the UN, 45 E. 65th St., New York 21, N. Y.

Washington Newsletter, $2.00 per year, Friends Committee on National Legislation, 1000 Eleventh St., N. W., Washington 1, D. C.

The Conference Committee on World Peace requests that the District Superintendents, at the end of the first round of quarterly conferences, furnish to the Secretary of the Committee on World Peace the lists of Peace Committees on each charge.

II. Authorize the World Peace Committee to hold week-end peace institutes and rallies in the local communities.

III. Support every effort to create friendship and goodwill among the people of the world through such agencies as the World Council of Churches, Youth Caravans, missionary organizations, the United Nations, etc.

IV. We urge this Conference, as an expression of goodwill, to send fraternal delegates to the Western North Carolina Conference and the North Carolina Conference of the Central Jurisdiction at their annual meetings and to invite fraternal delegates from those conferences to attend our Annual Conference.

V. We urge our people to pray unceasingly for World Peace in the faith that more things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of.

To the end that these aims may be accomplished, we call upon the members of this Conference, both lay and clerical, to do all in their power to arouse our people to see the gravity of the crisis we face, and to work together vigorously and untiringly until there shall be peace on earth, good will among men.

REPORT ON UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING

Report No. 2

WHEREAS, the proposed program for Universal Military Training for all young men is a violation of our American democratic heritage, and

WHEREAS, the adoption of this program would unnecessarily indoctrinate our youth with militarism, and

WHEREAS, the future welfare of our nation and the strength of the Christian church is dependent upon young people with deep spiritual roots which have been nurtured in the environment of a Christian home, school and church and for which military training is no substitute;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the North Carolina Methodist Conference go on record as opposing Universal Military Training, and that our members be urged to make known their opposition to Universal Military Training by writing to their Congressmen.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CONFERENCE TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees of the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church met in Grace Methodist Church, Wilmington, N. C., on November 1, 1951, with the following members present: C. A. Dillon, C. E. Jordan, Josh L. Horne, T. M. Grant and R. G. Dawson.

The meeting was opened with prayer by R. G. Dawson. In the absence of the Secretary, H. I. Glass, the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was waived, and R. G. Dawson was appointed to act as secretary of the meeting.

C. E. Jordan, Treasurer, made his report on the various stocks, bonds and holdings of the Board, which revealed that there has been net earnings of $5,899.25 this year—5.62% on all holdings. The report was accepted and approved.

On motion, the treasurer was authorized to pay $3,500 of the earnings to the conference claimants, and the remainder of the earnings added to the holdings.

On motion, the treasurer was authorized to make out and mimeograph for distribution to the next annual conference a brief report on the holdings and work of the Board of Trustees, and request that the Chairman of the Board be given an opportunity to present the same to the conference.

The secretary was authorized to write a letter to the family of Dr. R. L. Flowers, expressing sympathy and regret in the passing of this faithful member of the Board.

By authorization of the Annual Conference in session, the Board of Trustees will be incorporated as soon as the details can be worked out. The treasurer was instructed to work out these details for the completion of the incorporation of the Board. Josh L. Horne, C. A. Dillon and C. E. Jordan were appointed as the incorporators with these three and the other members of the Board serving as directors of the new corporation.

The officers for the newly corporated Board of Trustees were elected, and are as follows: C. A. Dillon, Chairman; R. G. Dawson, Vice-Chairman; H. I. Glass, Secretary; and C. E. Jordan, Treasurer.

The meeting was adjourned.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

The North Carolina Conference Commission on Christian Vocations was formed at the last Annual Conference. We have had four meetings, all of which have been spent in seeking to find the reasons for a Commission on Christian Vocations and to discover means of fulfilling our purpose as a Commission.

We discovered a great lack of full-time persons in all church vocations. We are therefore planning a conference on church vocations to be held in Durham, February 1, 2, 3, 1952, at which time young people from all the charges who are interested in full-time service in the church will be invited to attend. The best-qualified persons in Methodism are being secured as speakers and leaders.

Pastors are being asked to select young people of promise, and interest in full-time church vocations, and send their names to the commission. A file of the names of these young persons will be kept in the office of the Conference Board of Education, and the commission plans to cultivate and to give guidance to those who are interested.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ACCEPTED SUPPLY PASTORS

The reports of the Accepted Supply Pastors reveal that these men have taken up the program of the church and carried it out faithfully and effectively. A considerable portion of the progress made by our Conference this year has been due to the good work of our Accepted Supplies. In the field of evangelism they have received over 400 new members on profession of faith, and increased the Sunday School enrollment by over 700.

The committee wishes to express warm appreciation to our Supply pastors for their faithful service rendered during the Conference year. And we recommend that the following persons be listed as Accepted Supply Pastors for another year:

Aldridge, Blan C.; Aitkin, L. A.; Bass, W. N.; Beaty, James L.; Brady, W. H.; Brodie, R. Stewart; Cooper, John A.; Cannon, W. O.; Crook, J. R.; Cowan, Z. V.; Carroll, J.  NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL

The North Carolina Pastors' School was again held as in integral part of the Duke University Christian Convocation and in connection with the North Carolina Rural Church Institute. Again it is to be noted that there was a very decided increase both in interest and attendance.

Perhaps the outstanding feature of the session was the James A. Gray lectures which were delivered by Dr. Paul E. Scherer, Professor of Homiletics, Union Theological Seminary, New York. Dr. Scherer gave six studies in the Book of Job, his general theme being "The Ways of God—A Study in the Book of Job."

Regular classroom instruction was given in many phases of church work by outstanding instructors. Courses and instructors were as follows: "The New Testament Faith and the Mind of the Church Today," Dr. Robert E. Cushman of Duke University Divinity School; "Christianity and World Missions," Dr. Daniel J. Fleming, Professor of Missions, Emeritus, Union Theological Seminary, New York; "The Minister's Tools and Techniques," Dr. Nolan Harmon, Book Editor, The Methodist Church; "The Vacation Church School," Mrs. W. R. Reed, Director of Children's Work, Western North Carolina Conference; Worship Workshop, Dr. J. J. Rudin II, of Duke University Divinity School; "The Minister and Public Relations," Dr. James Sells, Extension Secretary Southeastern Jurisdictional Council, Visual Aids and Rural Church, Atlanta; "Visual Aids," Dr. H. E. Tower, Board of Education, Nashville; "Planning a Church Program," Dr. A. J. Walton, Duke University Divinity School.

Bishop Paul N. Garber made the Alumni address for the Divinity Alumni and delivered an address on "Religion in Europe As I Have Seen It." This was the Divinity School Library Lecture for 1952.

Preaching and worship services were held each morning in the University Chapel. The sermons were delivered by Bishop Costen J. Harrell, of Charlotte.

Registration for classes totalled more than 400. Attendance at the general sessions was much larger.

REPORT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE COMMITTEE OF INVESTIGATION PERTAINING TO ANONYMOUS CARDS AND LETTERS SENT TO MEMBERS OF THE CONFERENCE, MINISTERS AND LAYMEN, THROUGH THE MAILS

Having been instructed by the recent Annual Conference at Kinston to investigate the annoying practice indicated in the subject above, the Committee of Investigation is conducting a conference-wide investigation and inquiry and hereby makes its report: The Committee visited all the districts, meeting the preachers in groups at designated places, and had a personal interview with each one. Fifteen such meetings were held. All the preachers connected with the Conference who were in physical position to do so, except the seven named below, appeared before the Committee or otherwise gave the Committee satisfactory answers to the questions asked them. All were asked if they had had any part, directly or indirectly, in the matter under investigation, or if they had any further statement or information to give the Committee. All brethren appearing before the Committee gave the most cordial cooperation. Their signed statements are being filed with the Chairman and Secretary of the Conference.

The following brethren, although duly notified like all the rest, did not meet the Committee or otherwise file a satisfactory statement. These are: P. O. Lee, O. L. Hardwick, W. C. Feltman, W. A. Seawell, Brooks Wagoner, C. K. Wright and W. H. Brady.

In the personal interviews, the Committee asked many other questions in its endeavors to identify the person or persons responsible for this vicious and hurtful thing, and also to draw out the preachers' appraisal of it, the why of it, and if, in their judgment, there exists in our Conference any unusual and unhealthy condition needing correction. The Committee makes the following analyses and report of its investigation and findings:

1. Virtually all preachers of the Conference in full connection and in active service received the anonymous communications. Almost to a man they denounce the spirit and content of the anonymous communications as unworthy and unbecoming of any person, particularly of a Christian minister, and look upon the whole performance as malicious and hurtful. The retired and supply pastors did not receive the attention of the anonymous writers.

2. In all, several hundred of these communications first and last, were mailed throughout the Conference from several different places. Yet from all the answers given the Committee, it would appear that with three exceptions NO PREACHER had any part in writing or sending them. The three exceptions are in connection with the letter written by Rev. B. B. Slaughter in reply to the "Bishop Bildad Akers, Jr.'s letter and signed "Any honorable preacher." A copy of this letter is filed with Slaughter's signed statement, and he frankly admits the authorship of it. Leon Russell and L. C. Vereen admit to transporting and mailing this letter for Slaughter. Though using the questionable and objectionable technique of anonymity this letter has none of the vicious content and evil purpose characteristic of many of the others. Therefore, these men do not hesitate to admit their part in sending it. But the authors and senders of the other communications of obvious evil and sometimes slanderous intent, not only continue their anonymity, but are now guilty of the far greater sin of denying having had any part in this or even knowing anything about the origin of these letters.

Therefore, having no frank and honest admission of their authorship and no other positive and indisputable evidence of the identity of the responsible and guilty person or persons, the Committee does not name any one as being the responsible person. However, there is among us a GUILTY MAN or MEN known both to themselves and to God. Neither are they unknown to the members of this Committee, for in an investigation and inquiry of this kind there appear other signs and evidences that sometimes speak louder than words. How can ministers of the Gospel and shepherds of the people continue as such with this thing in their hearts?

3. The Committee is very sure that more than one man is responsible for this thing, and that not more than a half-dozen are. Only a few of our preachers have been seriously suspected, and there is not a widespread suspicion and mistrust of one another among us as to disrupt our brotherhood. For this we can take courage and be thankful. This is a time when the Christian fellowship, especially of our own church, must be unbroken by any evil person or influences.

4. The preachers were asked what conditions or circumstances prevailing in the Conference could be a reasonable cause for this sort of thing. NO ONE knew of any. The few who think that certain conditions need correction or improvement, found it difficult or impossible to express or define what they have in mind. But concerning the anonymous communications in question, with very few exceptions, all repudiate it as vicious and dishonorable, and a cowardly attack upon our Bishop and a number of the brethren. Several expressed the opinion that the person or persons responsible for the anonymous letters are mentally and spiritually sick men. The Committee suspects that a few men of the conference may be nursing the unholy ambition to become leaders of a so-called "machine" of their own through which they would hope to attain to a place of coveted influence and leadership. They would therefore stir up suspicion and unrest, hoping thereby to gain a following for ulterior motives. Our conference members will no doubt be on guard against such.

We ministers, like Jesus in his temptations, and also like his first disciples, are tempted to desire and seek places of honor, distinction and material advantage. Jesus was shown and promised all the kingdoms of the world if He would bow down and worship the devil. James and John sought places of preferment in the kingdom. This incited jealousy, indignation and protest on the part of the ten. How like us today! The Committee thinks that this ugly thing in our Conference stems from the same kind of selfish spirit and the desire for place and material reward. Humility and the distinction of unselfish service should be our passion and prayer. A good many of our preachers are feeling that this is the great and first need of our church and conference.

In the private interviews the Committee asked most of the pastors their evaluation of Rev. E. C. Crawford's "Methodist Survey." The predominant opinion is, that while Crawford is forthright and open in what he is doing, the spirit and intent of his "Survey" are close akin to the anonymous letters, and does harm rather than good. Most of them would like for Brother Crawford to desist from his gratuitous work. They think he might more appropriately and profitably devote his time and efforts to his ministry rather than preparing and sending them his "Surveys."

While the Committee does not identify and name the person or persons responsible for this annoying and embarrassing thing in our Conference, it does know that the source of it is quite narrowly isolated in the minds of the brethren, and that from now on, if anyone should be so vicious and foolish as to repeat this thing, it would have no effect and would find its place in the fire or wastebasket.

5. From all its personal interviews, the Committee finds that Bishop Peele is held in high personal esteem and confidence by the members of our Conference. He is uniformly looked upon as a brotherly, conscientious and considerate administrator and leader of the church, and is greatly beloved.

It is felt by some that the administration of our itinerant system, and the making of the appointments, is made more difficult by the present dual system of the "Call" and consultation and the "Appointive System." This seems to make for undesirable politics and interference with the making of the appointments by both the laymen and preachers.

There is also a widely prevailing conviction that there should be reasonably frequent change or rotation of our administrative personnel; that is of the Bishops and District Superintendents, and that men who have served as District Superintendents should rarely repeat. This would, it is thought, remove and prevent the possibility and danger of a pre-conceived prejudice against some preachers in the making of their appointments, and of personal favoritism in the case of others.

6. Whatever the occasion or motive for any person or persons thus annoying our Conference, the Committee earnestly hoped that those responsible would honestly and truthfully admit this unChristian and unbrotherly conduct. There is no spirit of reprisal in the Conference against them. Had they asked forgiveness, the brethren would gladly have forgiven. Only thus can the guilty ones be absolved from their haunting sense of shame and guilt and this would be healed. The way of salvation is through repentance, confession and forgiveness. But in default of this, though unknown and unnamed except to themselves and to God, the Committee must say of any and all who have done this thing, that they are guilty: First, of "unChristian tempers, words and actions"; and second, of "imprudent and unministerial conduct."

Respectfully submitted,

Note: J. P. Pegg, R. F. Munns, and D. M. Sharpe, reserve members of the Committee, participated in the investigation in the part-time absence of one of the principals.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MOVING EXPENSE

The Committee finds that for the past two years the expense of preachers moving to new charges has averaged approximately fifty dollars. Since changes of appointments are considerably more frequent in the smaller charges, this imposes an added burden on preachers whose salaries are already inadequate. But the committee has concluded that the problem is not of sufficient proportions to justify the additional machinery that would be involved in a conference-wide plan to meet this need. We recommend that, where possible, the charge to which a new preacher is appointed pay, in whole or in part, the expense of his moving; and that this be considered especially in those charges that pay only the minimum salary. We request that immediately after each annual session the district superintendents, by letter or otherwise, call this recommendation to the attention of charges with minimum salaries which are receiving new pastors.

REPORT OF THE METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

Inflation during our fiscal year ending August 31, 1951, has brought the North Carolina Christian Advocate face to face with a critical situation. Overhead due to inflation has been rising more rapidly than income. During the year income from subscriptions, advertising, obituaries and books and Bibles amounted to $32,770.83. Earnings from endowment, office rent and dividends brought the total to $36,250.83. Expenses for the year, counting depreciation, amounted to $45,033.39. Our net loss for the year was $8,782.56. Based on the present circulation of 16,500, each subscription during the past year cost $2.72. Subscription income amounted to $1.67, representing a loss of $1.05 on each subscription. During the year publishing costs increased $6,417 while income increased $3,300. In other words, increased expenses amounted to $3,117 over increased income. Each subscription cost 18.7 cents more than it did the previous year.

Our job department with a gross revenue of $69,762.92 was able to absorb the loss incurred by the Advocate and to show a profit of $5,227.73 in the year's operations. But with the present inflationary trend this amount will soon be wiped out and it is probable that unless the trend is arrested the Methodist Board of Publication, Inc., will show a loss during the present fiscal year. Our job department is doing about all it can under the present circumstances.

The Board, after considering seriously every phase of this problem, has come to the conclusion that the only way we can maintain our present standard and operate on a sound basis is to increase subscription prices. Practically every church periodical has had at least one or two increases in subscription rates within recent years. The Advocate, even though overhead has risen more than 100%, has kept the subscription rate down. It can no longer do so. Therefore, the Board in its annual meeting September 24, 1951, voted to make the following subscription rates effective November 1, 1951: single subscriptions, $2.50 a year; single subscriptions three years, $6.00; to churches reaching a quota of seven subscriptions for every 100 members, $2.25 for each subscription; to churches that send the Advocate to every family, $1.75 a subscription. The Board also voted to request ministers to pay $2.00 a year for their subscriptions with retired members and widows of members of our two Conferences to continue to receive the paper without cost.

The Board earnestly requests the full support of our preachers and laymen during the year ahead, for unless we can meet this situation the Board will be forced to call upon both of our Conferences for a subsidy, a practice already followed by virtually all of our Conference organs. The Board recommends that January, 1952, be designated as Advocate Month and that every church during that month or at some other time as early in the Conference year as possible promote the circulation of the Advocate. The Advocate is the most effective and most economical means of presenting the program of North Carolina Methodism to our people.

The Board also requests that, if possible, a column in the Pastor's Report to Annual Conference be given to report the number of subscriptions to the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

During the year improvements, consisting of a new Miehle press, new type and repairs to the property, have been made. Contributions totaling $5,548.50 have been made to the home for the editor purchased in August, 1950. Indebtedness against the home has been reduced to $4,260.51.

The terms of A. J. Hobbs of the North Carolina Conference and W. B. Hall of the Western North Carolina Conference expire at Conference this year. The Board at the annual meeting nominated Dr. Hobbs and Mr. Hall to succeed themselves and requests their re-election by their respective Conferences for a term of five years.

The Board elected Rev. Walter Thompson, a member of the Western North Carolina Conference, to be assistant manager and requests the Conference to appoint him to this position. The following officers were re-elected: A. J. Hobbs, president; N. L. Eure, vice-president; T. C. Hoyle, Sr., secretary; and C. W. Robbins, editor and manager.

Rich Square, North Carolina
 October 20, 1951.

Rev. H. Freo Surratt, Treasurer
 North Carolina Conference Brotherhood
 Rich Square, North Carolina

Dear Mr. Surratt:

Pursuant to your request, I have examined the books and records of the North Carolina Conference Brotherhood for the period from October 27, 1950, to October 20, 1951, and found them to be in order.

Scope of Examination

This examination was made as of October 20, 1951, and is not to be considered a complete audit.

The examination consisted of reconciling the bank account, analyzing the payments of calls from the checks and preparing a statement of condition.

The financial statement of condition fairly reflects the financial standing of the North Carolina Conference Brotherhood.

In addition to the balance on deposit with The Bank of Rich Square, there were two shares of Co-operative Building and Loan stock at October 20, 1951.

REPORT OF DIRECTOR, METHODIST STUDENT CENTER

Deaconess Mamiej Chandler, East Carolina College, Greenville, N. C., for year 1950-51

There is no experience more thrilling than that of observing over a period of a year the development of college students—to note their eager quest for the meaning of life, to note their growing awareness of God and their appreciation for Christian values, and to have the inestimable privilege of guiding them into the Christian way of vital companionship with Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord. One in a position of leadership of college students comes to recognize the need for complete abandonment of one's self to God that one might learn the way of understanding, compassion and consecration necessary for this high commission.

Christian leaders of Youth are aware of a turning toward Religion on the part of our college students. Some say it is just another upward trend in the graph; others that the uncertainty and confusion which our young people feel in the face of the present world situation causes them to long for security and to reach out for a firm basis for their faith. Certainly we know that God is reaching down into human life and we should make the most of the opportunity which is now presented to us to share our knowledge of God and to give evidence of our Christian faith, that our young people may respond to His love.

Increasingly there is borne upon me the tremendous responsibility which is ours as we face the opportunity offered through our Methodist Student Center. We need to ask ourselves in all frankness whether or not we are taking the fullest advantage of this opportunity. East Carolina College offers unusual freedom for the program of Religion on the campus. This past year a Director of Religious Activities began his work on our campus as a member of the college faculty. Rev. Robert Holt, a minister of the Baptist denomination, has recently been awarded a Ph.D. degree. He is doing a good work in coordinating the various religious groups which have programs for our students, and also in setting up courses in Religion in the college curriculum.

Our Methodist students are in places of leadership in the religious organizations of the campus—the Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A.—in the Student Government Association, and in other campus organizations. The president of our Wesley Foundation is our representative on the campus Inter-Religious Council and the counselor is also a member of this Council (Counselors of the various religious groups are members in an advisory capacity.) All organized church groups working with students are represented on this Council, with the campus religious organizations. Religious Emphasis Week was sponsored by the Inter-Religious Council. Our Wesley Foundation had representatives on all the committees for this Week and contributed $33.00 to the expense of this observance. Our group has sponsored programs of worship for the college chapel, and our Wesley Players—Alpha Zeta Chapter—participated in the Eastern Carolina Play Festival held on our campus in March. The counselor served with other dramatic directors from schools and colleges on the Planning Committee for the Festival. Our Alpha Zeta Chapter presented a one-act play—"What Men Live By," adapted from the story by Leo Tolstoy—and received very favorable commendation for their production. Special mention was made in the closing evaluation of the excellent conduct of our students and of their fine spirit of cooperation in the whole program of the Festival.

Our students are a vital part of the local church, as well as of the college, because of the cordial attitude of the pastor, Rev. Leon Russell, the leaders and members of the Jarvis Memorial Church. Our Student Class is the college department of the Church School, the counselor is a member of the Local Church Board of Christian Education, and on the Executive Board of the Woman's Society of Christian Service as secretary of Spiritual Life. Members of the W.S.C.S. have acted as hostesses at the Student Center in the absence of the counselor to attend various National and Church conferences, our students have presented programs in the general meetings and circle meetings of the W.S.C.S., as well as at Week of Prayer and Mission Study Classes. Men as well as women students have participated in these programs. Two of our men students visited with teams in our Church Personal Evangelism program and were greatly stimulated by the experience. The church gave red roses to all students attending church on the first Sunday morning of the Fall Quarter and leaders of the congregation greeted the students in the vestibule. Such attentions and experiences have made our students feel at home in the local church and have helped them to recognize the Wesley Foundation as an integral and vital part of the program of The Methodist Church.

Several social events have been held in the social rooms of the church. The annual BIG PARTY during first week of Fall Quarter for all Methodist students and faculty members. The Church and Wesley Foundation cooperated to make this an outstanding and very happy event. In November the Wesley Foundation Commission on Recreation gave a "Harvest Moon" party and a "Campfire Party" in March, both held in the social rooms of the church, to which all Methodist students were sent written invitations. These were occasions of real fellowship and wholesome fun enjoyed by our students in the church building.

Special services have been held in the Sanctuary. An Advent Service on Sunday night before Christmas holidays, in which 50 students participated in dramatic parts, speaking choir and singing choir. Several of these had not before participated in any part of our program.

Alpha Zeta Chapter of Wesley Players held a supper for their pledges in the social room of the church in October and a pledge service afterward in the Sanctuary for 16 new pledges. The Chapter assumed responsibility for the Advent Service, a dramatic service of worship. The Chapter also presented a one-act play—"The Finger of God"—on Wednesday night, November 1, at the request of the pastor and also "What Men Live By" on Sunday night, April 29, in the church annex. Upon invitation of the Conference leaders, this play, "What Men Live By," was presented by the cast on Drama Night at the Methodist Student Movement Regional Conference, Lake Junaluska, June 5-11. Other dramatic productions were: a series of six radio broadcasts over WGTC, "The Voice of Lent," during the Lenten season—directed by one of our students; a playlet—"Chant to the Living"—for the local W.S.C.S. Mission Study on the Near East; two radio programs for the W.C.T.U. The Chapter has held regular weekly meetings, with play readings at several of these meetings, at the Student Center. An initiation banquet was held on the night of April 30, in the social room of the church, and initiation of twelve pledges was held afterwards in the Sanctuary.

Special programs at vespers, which are held every Sunday evening in the center, were: Experiences on Youth Caravan in Germany last summer, by Herbert Waldrop, a Greenville boy who was a member of the caravan, now a student in Duke School of Religion; Special visit from a Japanese Rotary scholarship student, and Dr. Howard McGinnis of East Carolina College (former faculty member), who made this visit possible; Ralph Fleming, student at Duke University, associated for a year with World Federalists, spoke at vespers and also at Student Class on Sunday morning and led discussion. The outstanding event was the visit of Miss Margaret Briggs of the Personnel Department, Board of Missions, who spent several days at the Student Center, spoke at Student Class, led discussion at vespers, spoke at evening worship on Sunday in the church, and held conferences with individuals and groups of students concerning full-time Christian service.

The Student Center has surely been a "Home away from home" to a large number of students this past year. Group parties have been held throughout the year, informal recreation and fellowship every night, with the Center open at all times to the students. The counselor has held 959 personal conferences with students. This I count a high privilege and a great opportunity, for students have many real problems, questions and high aspirations and yearnings which they need to talk over with an understanding friend who can offer guidance. Some of our students have come to know God and to give themselves to Christ's way of life through these conferences, and some are looking forward to full-time Christian service. Many have been helped to think through their problems and to arrive at a right decision. Friendships have been formed in the Student Center, and small groups have learned to think together and work together and to support one another in the Christian way of life. A Fellowship Group of six students has met regularly since opening of Fall Quarter, every Wednesday morning at 7:15 for meditation and prayer, and breakfast at the Center afterwards. This group has faced together problems in our program and in our large group of students and the devotion of the Fellowship members and their sincere desire to live as Christians has been of real influence in our program and has helped in the solution of many difficult problems. This Group planned and conducted Lenten Meditations held in the Little Chapel in our Center during the Lenten season every Wednesday afternoon. The Student Center is really the "Center" of our activities as a Wesley Foundation. On Sunday morning before Christmas holidays, the annual Christmas breakfast for members of the W. F. Council was held at the Center, with early communion in the Little Chapel conducted by the pastor before the breakfast. The old and new Wesley Foundation Council members had a barbecue supper at the Center soon after the election of officers for the new year (in the spring). This was a time of inspiration and fellowship as old and new members shared the experiences of their work together during the year just past. A tea was held for the Senior Council members shortly before commencement and gifts presented to the retiring members who were graduating from the college.

Open House was held for the annual meeting of the N. C. Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service on Thursday night of the meeting. Approximately 300 were present at this Open House, which was sponsored by the Local Committee of the Student Center.

The Student Center was re-decorated inside and some new furnishings added this spring, and the Center is now a much more attractive "Home" for our students.

Two Retreats were held for our student members of the Wesley Foundation Council—one immediately after commencement in two cottages at Bayview, lent to our group by Mrs. Roy Tripp and Mrs. Frederick Brooks, members of Jarvis Memorial Church. This Retreat was for cultivation of the spiritual life of the leaders and to set up objectives for the year's program. The week-end before opening of college in the Fall, a retreat was held at the Student Center at which time details of the program were worked out for the year.

A Commissioning Service was held for the newly elected Council on Sunday night, May 13, in the church, and the commissioning was by the pastor. This Council was taken on Retreat by the counselor for three days immediately after commencement, for the purpose of evaluation of the past year's program, meditation and prayer and worship together, and to consider their responsibility as leaders in the group for the coming year. The pastor, Rev. Leon Russell, and the Director of Religious Activities on the campus, Rev. Robert Holt, led discussions on the closing morning of the retreat on "The Place of the Wesley Foundation in the Church" and the "Place of the Wesley Foundation on the Campus."

Our Wesley Foundation was represented at the various conferences for students. Several attended with the counselor the M.Y.F. meeting held during Annual Conference in Kinston. One of our students was on the State M.S.M. Council and he, with the president of the Wesley Foundation and the counselor, attended the State Planning Retreat in Greensboro in the Fall. Plans had been made to attend the State M.S.M. Conference in High Point, but snow and icy roads prevented. Five students attended the M.S.M. Regional Conference at Lake Junaluska, June 5-11, and six others went up to present the Play on Drama Night. The counselor led the Evaluation after the Play, and was also adult leader in one of the Fellowship Groups in the Conference.

A Youth Fellowship team was organized through our morning Fellowship Group, composed of five students, which visited M.Y.F. groups in rural churches and assisted them in their program. One member of this Fellowship Group has sent in his pre-admission application to the Duke School of Religion, and another member has sent in her application for admission into Scarritt College next Fall.

Our W.F. sent a box of warm clothing to Korean war sufferers, valued at $50.00, transportation and parcel post amounted to $2.50, total $53.33. The self-denial offering during Lent, $21.14, was also sent to Korean war sufferers. $68.64 was sent to the International Christian University in Japan. A Christmas box, value $20.00, was sent to our German family and a CARE package, $10.00, sent to an old couple in Germany for Christmas. $10.00 was given to our maid at the Student Center as a Christmas gift. A year's subscription to the Readers Digest, in German, was sent in this past year to our German family.

All Methodist students were contacted during the year, either by visit or letters, invitations, and POWER and the WESLEY J., our student bulletin, distributed to them. The enrollment of East Carolina College (students living on campus and in town) was 1,891 Fall Quarter. Methodist: 530—men 243, women 287. Freshmen: 209—men 85, women 124. There was a decrease in enrollment of 307 by Spring Quarter, largely due to the war situation.

A Retreat for newly elected officers was held at Bayview immediately after commencement to prepare them for the responsibilities of the coming year. The Student Center will be kept open, with a program adapted to the needs of students in summer school, until the counselor goes on vacation for the month of August.

As I look back over the year of service, I thank God for the high privilege of "working together with Him," and I look forward with courage and enthusiasm to the coming year in our Student Center.

Respectfully submitted,

MAMIEJ CHANDLER

DUKE ENDOWMENT REPORT—1950-1951

September 13, 1951

The following appropriations have been made in the two Carolina Conferences for the Conference year 1950-1951:

The building aid requests continue to increase in number, and the funds sought are several times the amount on hand for distribution. Much study is given to the many applications and an effort made to select for immediate help those churches most nearly able to meet at once the requirements governing the distribution of the funds. Those aided are to be completed and dedicated debt free within two years of the date the grant is made. The building must also be approved by the District Committees on Church Building and Location and by the Endowment Director. To be approved the building must meet the needs of the congregation and durability and beauty in architectural design must make the building attractive and worthy of being copied by other congregations.

Dear Sir:

We have audited the books and financial records of Mr. C. A. Dillon, Treasurer of the North Carolina Conference, for the period beginning December 1, 1950, and ended November 30, 1951, and in connection therewith we examined and verified the Treasurer's annual report which was prepared by Mr. Haslin Simon, Assistant Treasurer, for publication in the Conference Journal of Proceedings.

Gentlemen:

Pursuant to instructions, I have audited the accounts and records of the North Carolina Council of Churches for the periods from September 1, 1950 to December 31, 1950 and from January 1, 1951 to August 31, 1951. The financial results for these periods are summarized below:

| | | |
|--|------------|------------|
| Balance September 1, 1950 | | $3,269.54 |
| Receipts September 1, 1950 to December 31, 1950 | $5,726.81 | |
| Disbursements September 1, 1950 to December 31, 1950 | 3,948.29 | 1,778.52 |
| Balance December 31, 1950 | | $5,048.06 |
| Receipts January 1, 1951 to August 31, 1951 | $8,961.05 | |

During the course of the audit, all receipts were audited and traced into the bank account, all cancelled checks were examined and applied, and the bank account reconciled. All records were found in order, and in my opinion the statements of the Treasurer properly reflect the financial activity during the periods under review.

As of August 31, 1951 there was a liability for taxes withheld in the amount of $113.60.

MINISTERS' CREDIT UNION

The Methodist Ministers' Credit Union was organized at the 1938 Annual Conference in Elizabeth City. It is a state chartered corporation, and its activities are supervised by the State Superintendent of Credit Unions. The Treasurer's books are audited by a state auditor periodically.

Below is a comparative growth table showing the increased business of the Credit Union at five-year intervals.

| | 12-31-1938 | 12-31-1943 | 12-31-1948 | 1-30-1951 |
|----------------------------------|------------|------------|------------|-----------|

| Undivided Profits | | 18.51 | 56.95 | 72.16 |
| Number of members | 26 | 37 | 52 | 48 |

Every member of the Conference is a potential member of the Credit Union. It affords members an opportunity to invest their savings safely with an organization which in turn makes loans to members who need to borrow.

A Credit Union in the California-Arizona Conference has over 300 members with $80,000 in assets. Our Credit Union should have at least 200 members with a comparable increase in assets.

See the person on duty at the Credit Union desk in the Book Room while you are at Conference. He will be glad to answer your questions concerning the Credit Union, and he will be glad to enroll you as a member.

A MEMORIAL

To the General Conference, 1952

Whereas the years immediately ahead will constitute an exceedingly exacting difficult era for national and worldwide Christianity, and

Whereas The Methodist Church, if it is to wield the influence and leadership both nationally and throughout the world which has characterized its history thus far, must have an even more adequately trained and skilled leadership, equipped with the knowledge of both the Christian ideology and the ideologies of the non-Christian and pagan philosophies, and the Christian application of the social sciences in this new day, and

Whereas most of our Methodist schools of theology are so beset with financial difficulties as to be unable to afford the more adequate faculties and curriculum coverages which this day requires, without additional aid from the denomination, and

Whereas our local churches should naturally expect to make some contribution toward the training of the ministers whom they want and must have, therefore,

Be It Resolved, that the North Carolina Annual Conference hereby memorializes the General Conference of The Methodist Church of 1952 requesting that it authorize a plan for the adequate support of these said schools of theology of The Methodist Church; and that it implement such plan by pro rating to the Annual Conferences their proper and respective shares to be raised annually for the support of these schools. Further,

Be It Resolved, that we in the North Carolina Annual Conference will gladly do our share toward the raising of such funds as may be apportioned to us, in the interest of assuring The Methodist Church a more adequately educated ministry for the difficult and exacting days ahead.

This Memorial was approved by the North Carolina Annual Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, in session in Wilmington, North Carolina, October 31 to November 4, 1951.

A MEMORIAL TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE, 1952

Resolved, That a special fund, to be known as "The Emergency Fund," be set up by the 1952 General Conference. That this fund be administered by a committee composed of representation from the Board of Evangelism, the Home Division of the Board of Missions and the Division of the Local Church of the Board of Education.

The purpose of this Emergency Fund shall be to lend aid to local churches and pastors located in crowded areas caused by the National Mobilization Program or other related industrial developments. This fund shall be used in cases that are clearly revealed to be in need of assistance beyond local ability to supply. This assistance may take the form of additional building facilities or additional church staff personnel. This assistance may be used to set up temporary worship and teaching quarters in trailer courts or other temporary situations.

The amount of this fund to be determined by the General Conference after careful study of the data in evidence.

This Memorial was approved by the North Carolina Annual Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, in session in Wilmington, North Carolina, October 31 to November 4, 1951.

MEMORIAL TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF 1952

from

The New Bern District Conference of the North Carolina Conference
at Havelock, N. C., May 3, 1951

Subject Matter: The amendments of Paragraphs 308 and 352 (2) of the 1948 Discipline pertaining to the privileges of the unordained local preachers serving as supply pastors.

Amend the above numbered paragraphs which deny unordained local preachers serving as supply pastors the right to administer the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper by restoring the language of paragraphs 308 and 330 of the 1944 Discipline which reads as follows: "An unordained local preacher, only while serving as a regularly appointed pastor of a charge, may, upon recommendation by his district superintendent and written consent of the resident bishop, be authorized to administer the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper and to perform the marriage ceremony, if the laws of the state permit."

We deem it to be both practically necessary and in harmony with New Testament authority and historic Methodist practice that all men entrusted with the sacred privilege and responsibility of preaching the Gospel and serving as pastors should also administer the Sacraments instituted by our Lord. The denial of this authority to unordained supply pastors is to deprive thousands of our people of the privilege and blessings of these Sacraments.

MEMORIAL TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE

Whereas there are those who feel that a limited tenure in our pastorates is a necessary and an essential feature of our Methodist plan of government and of our heritage, and

Whereas it is believed that a limited tenure of the pastorate would make for a more wholesome spirit and attitude among the pastors of our Conference; that a definite rule would be of great value to the cabinet; and, in the final accounting that greater benefits would be achieved for all congregations concerned, and

Whereas our Conference now operates under two plans: namely, that of permitting the congregations to determine the length of pastorate and our traditional plan of appointment by Cabinet action; plans which inevitably oppose each other.

Therefore, be it resolved: That an additional section be added to Par. 432 of the Discipline which will read as follows: that any Annual Conference will have the right to adopt a limited tenure of pastorate for the preachers within its bounds wherein a two-thirds vote approves.

Second, that whenever this action is taken it shall become the duty of the Bishop to see that this law is enforced.

MEMORIAL TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE

requesting a

"CRUSADE FOR WORLD ORDER"

A state of emergency was declared some time ago by our national government. It is time our church acts in like manner. The totally destructive war growing nearer by the day forbids Christians to continue business as usual. If the impending full-scale war is not averted, the will of God shall be tragically thwarted again. Much of the good the church is doing will be consumed in the holocaust of the conflict.

Several years ago our church conducted an all-out campaign to establish the United Nations. We recognized that world peace could not exist without a world organization through which the nations could settle their differences in some way other than war. Thus the "Crusade for a New World Order" was conducted between Dumbarton Oaks and San Francisco, turning all Methodism's resources into the preparation of our nation for its role in helping create the United Nations.

Something has gone wrong. The song of the dove is lost in the growl of the tank. The United Nations has not been able to keep the peace. The resulting loss of confidence in the U. N. may well make it the first casualty in a third world war. Surely it is time for our church to turn the resources of Methodism into saving the peace by saving the U. N.

Among other things, we might well turn our eyes toward 1955, when the matter of a conference to review and amend the U. N. Charter will be automatically placed on the agenda of the U. N. General Assembly. This conference will not be called unless our country is willing. Surely, Methodism has a responsibility for seeing that our nation is ready to call for the review conference and to work therein for such Charter revisions as are needed to give the U. N. adequate powers for peace.

Therefore, we request the General Conference of the Methodist Church to conduct a "Crusade for World Order" in the year 1954-1955 in the new quadrennium. Let the church through all its activities earnestly study the question: "Why is the U. N. unable to keep the peace, and how can it be improved?" Let the appropriate body of the church, upon such earnest and persistent study, prescribe a remedy for the U. N.'s disabilities and outline a plan of action that will break the seemingly endless cycle of war. Let the full strength of Methodism unite in the task.

RESOLUTIONS

REQUESTING THE APPOINTMENT OF BISHOP PAUL N. GARBER TO THE RICHMOND AREA

Shortly after the last Annual Conference, due to his continued ill health, Bishop W. W. Peele was advised by his physician to give up his work. He consented and invited Bishop Paul N. Garber to assume the leadership of the Richmond Area. Bishop Garber had been Resident Bishop of the Geneva Area for nearly seven years and in that difficult field had rendered a great service to the church.

In the short period of time he has been with us, he and Mrs. Garber have greatly endeared themselves to our people. His brotherly spirit is admired and appreciated by both ministers and laymen. He has come to know personally a great number of North Carolina Methodists. He has a keen insight into the workings of our Conference and is familiar with many of the problems that confront us. In his fine way, he is showing an unusual ability to cope with these problems. We feel that North Carolina has been most fortunate to have Bishop Garber as our leader.

Therefore, be it resolved, that we go on record here and now asking that Bishop Paul N. Garber be appointed to the Richmond Area for the next quadrennium, and that our delegation to the Jurisdictional Conference be instructed to work for and insist upon this appointment.

Resolved, that copies of this resolution be sent to the Secretary of the Southeastern Jurisdictional College of Bishops, the Secretary of the Committee on Episcopacy and Bishop and Mrs. Garber.

CONCERNING BISHOP PEELE

Whereas Bishop W. W. Peele has been the resident and presiding bishop of the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church for eight years; and

Whereas because of failing health and on his doctor's advice, he relinquished the episcopal duties of the Richmond area on February 15, 1951; and

Whereas his supervision of our Conference was characterized always by progressive policies, the personal interest of a native son, and the gracious touch of sincere friendship for both ministers and laymen;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the North Carolina Conference in annual session in Grace Church, Wilmington, October 31, 1951:

First, that we express our great regret over the continued illness of Bishop Peele, gratitude for evidence of gradual improvement, and hope for complete recovery;

Second, that we thank Bishop Peele for his consecrated leadership, shepherd's care, and understanding heart;

Third, that we pledge ourselves to deeper consecration, a more brotherly spirit, and more diligent labors in the work of our Lord's Kingdom;

Fourth, that we assure both Bishop and Mrs. Peele of our abiding love and continuing prayers for their best welfare;

Fifth, that a copy of this resolution be sent to Bishop Peele, and a copy printed in the North Carolina Christian Advocate and the North Carolina Annual Conference Journal.

(Signed) C. D. BARCLIFT

Whereas the Richmond Area of The Methodist Church as now constituted has been among the most successful of all the areas of the entire Church, and

Whereas the relationship between the North Carolina Conference and the Virginia Conference has been most cordial and most acceptable to all concerned;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the North Carolina Annual Conference request the Jurisdictional Committee on Annual Conferences to continue the Richmond Area as now constituted, with the North Carolina Conference and the Virginia Conference forming the area, for the next quadrennium.

CONCERNING THE ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO THE JURISDICTIONAL AND GENERAL CONFERENCES

Resolved:

1. That the first ballot for the election of delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences be taken at today's evening session immediately following the reception of the class into full connection.

2. That paragraph 502, section 4, 1948 Discipline, which recommends to the Annual Conference "that the delegates to the General Conference be first elected on a separate ballot, to be followed, after all the delegates to the General Conference have been elected, by balloting for delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference as reserves to the General Conference" be followed by this Conference.

3. That 4 reserve delegates be elected to the Jurisdictional Conference.

4. That the ballot blanks provided by The Methodist Publishing House be made the official ballot of this Conference.

5. That two sets of clerical and lay tellers be appointed to receive and count the ballots, each set alternating with the other.

6. That the tellers be, and they are hereby instructed, to make a complete and accurate report to the Conference of all ballots cast, distinguishing between "defective" and "valid" ballots, announcing all names of the persons voted for on the "valid" ballots, and the number of votes received by each. No ballot shall be counted as "valid" that contains more or fewer names than the number to be voted for at the time of such balloting, as announced in advance by the Chair.

ON ANNUAL CONFERENCE TIME OF MEETING

Since some confusion has arisen regarding the time for the meeting of the North Carolina Annual Conference, and because it was felt that this matter was taken up late Saturday night of the 1950 Conference, and that many of the members of the Conference were not present, the Committee on Time of Meeting of the Annual Conference feels that this matter should be re-opened and presented when the majority of the members of the Conference are present. Therefore, the Committee desires to re-open the question and to make the following recommendation.

Resolved, That the North Carolina Conference meet in its annual session in 1952 in the early fall, preferably between September 15th and October 15th.

Note: This is only a recommendation to our presiding bishop.

ON SUPPORT OF COLLEGES

Motion: That the bishop be requested to call a special one-day session of the Conference in March, 1952, to consider the question of support for our Methodist colleges in the state. That a special committee be designated to study the facts, issues and needs involved in our Methodist program of higher education and recommend a long-range program for Christian education at the college level; if possible, making these recommendations available for publication in the North Carolina Christian Advocate at least 30 days in advance of the special session. That this committee be named by the Bishop after consultations with the Cabinet.

ROBERT W. BRADSHAW

CONCERNING THE N. C. CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

To the North Carolina Conference:

Whereas, The North Carolina Christian Advocate is the official news magazine of North Carolina Methodism, and is the most economical and effective means of carrying the program and message of the Church to our people, and

Whereas, Under the present plan of circulation the Advocate is going into only about 15% of our Methodist homes, and

Whereas, The Advocate is facing increasing financial difficulties under the present plan of circulation;

Therefore, be it Resolved, That the Bishop and his Cabinet be requested to appoint a committee to study the feasibility of sending the North Carolina Christian Advocate to every Methodist family on a Conference-sponsored basis. The Committee to report back to the 1952 regular session of the North Carolina Conference.

OPPOSING AMBASSADOR TO VATICAN

Be It Resolved, That the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The Methodist Church expresses its vigorous opposition to the action of the President of the United States in naming an official ambassador to the Vatican. We do not believe that such an embassy will make any significant contribution to the achievement of peace which cannot be attained through other means. We are convinced that such action violates the American principle of separation between church and state, which principle we believe critically important for the maintenance of democracy.

That a copy of this resolution be sent to the President of the United States, with the earnest request that he rescind said appointment.

That a copy be sent to the North Carolina delegation in the United States Senate with the request that they do all in their power to prevent the approval of this appointment.

THE COMMITTEE ON WORLD PEACE
(Signed): HENRY G. RUARK, Chairman
LAFON C. VEREEN, Secretary

ON UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING

Whereas the proposed program for Universal Military Training for all young men is a violation of our American democratic heritage, and

Whereas the adoption of this program would unnecessarily indoctrinate our youth with militarism, and

Whereas the manpower needs of our country are adequately met by the Selective Service system, and

Whereas the future welfare of our nation and the strength of the Christian church is dependent upon young people with deep spiritual roots which have been nurtured in the environment of a Christian home, school and church and for which military training is no substitute;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the North Carolina Methodist Conference go on record as opposing Universal Military Training, and that our members be urged to make known their opposition to Universal Military Training by writing to their Congressmen.

SUBMITTED BY COMMITTEE ON WORLD PEACE

ON CONFERENCE PROGRAM

Whereas the increasing length of our Conference meetings makes it difficult for lay delegates to attend the full session; and

Whereas the almost continuous sessions tend to fatigue and lessen the efficiency of the members, and especially of the leaders, and to prevent opportunities for relaxation and fellowship; and

Whereas, the addresses which are intended to inform and inspire are obscured and their effectiveness lessened by the routine of a crowded agenda;

Therefore, Be It Resolved: That we request the Committee on Program to study carefully the possibilities of a thorough-going revision of the program to the end that non-essentials may be eliminated, the attention of the Conference may be focussed on the great issues that confront us, and the sessions become a time of spiritual refreshing and re-creation.

Memoirs

CICERO HARRIS CAVINESS

By E. R. Clegg and W. L. Clegg

Cicero Harris Caviness was born in Randolph County, North Carolina, December 24, 1870. He was the son of Benjamin Saunders Caviness and Sarah Allred Caviness, who provided that kind of home in which, though luxuries and even conveniences were not numerous, dependable and sturdy character was developed. Brother Caviness came out of the kind of environment in which men grew and learned that the real values of life did not consist of things seen and handled. He grew up to know the honor and dignity of honest toil.

After attending Trinity College, now Duke University, Brother Caviness taught school for several years. These years as a teacher of youth fitted him, as much as his formal education, for the call to full-time Christian ministry. He was admitted on trial into the Methodist ministry at the Annual Conference meeting in Concord, N. C., in 1899, at the age of 29, and served several charges in the Western North Carolina Conference. In 1911 he transferred to the North Carolina Conference. Charges he served in the North Carolina Conference were as follows: Ahoskie, 1911-13; Stonewall, 1913-15; Newport, 1915-19; Grifton, 1919-21; Burgaw, 1921-23; Bynum, 1923-25; Elizabethtown, 1925-27; Stedman, 1927-30; Hemp, 1930-31; and Lumberton Circuit, 1931-33.

After serving thirty-four years in the active ministry Brother Caviness asked for and was granted the retired relation at the Annual Conference meeting in November, 1933. During his retirement he lived near Siler City, N. C. He died at the Chatham Hospital in Siler City on November 8, 1950. Funeral services were conducted by the Reverend E. R. Clegg, assisted by the Reverend W. L. Clegg, in the First Methodist Church at Siler City, and his body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Pleasant Grove Christian Church near his home.

Brother Caviness was a quiet man. He cared little for fanfare and did not seek places of prominence. He was content to serve his Lord and it mattered little to him to be "seen of men." All who came to know him came to deeply appreciate his down-to-earth simplicity and sincerity. There was a solidity and rugged strength about him that brought steadiness and confidence to those to whom he ministered. One of a number of good traits about Brother Caviness was his way of seeking out, in an unobtrusive manner, younger ministers and making friends with them. He was not "wordy," but he would let one know that he was interested in him. He had a wholesome philosophy of life which he sometimes revealed with sly humor.

Not only in his relationship to the people he served as a minister and to his fellow ministers was Brother Caviness a great blessing, but also in the intimate circle of the home he was a devoted and wise husband and father. One wonders how, except for his dependence upon God, he could do so much for such a large family as was his when one remembers that the charges he served paid small salaries.

Brother Caviness was twice married, first to Lydia Bisco Leonard on November 20, 1895. At her death Brother Caviness was left with four small children. On April 19, 1911, he married Carrie Bell Roberts, who survives him. In addition to Mrs. Caviness he is survived by the following children: Miss Myrtle Caviness, Princeton, N. C.; Mrs. A. L. Mansfield, Carolina Beach, N. C.; Mr. C. A. Caviness, Los Angeles, California; Mrs. J. C. Thompson, Warsaw, N. C.; James W. Caviness, Siler City, N. C.; Mrs. Leroy Pittman, Siler City, N. C.; the Reverend W. D. Caviness, Goldsboro, N. C.; Miss Ethel Caviness, Siler City, N. C.; and Mr. Paul W. Caviness, Michigan.

When reminded that Brother Caviness walks this earth no more, we do not despair; because, as Frederick Hosmer put it:

"We cannot think of them as dead
Who walk with us no more
Along the paths of life we tread;
They have but gone before.

"And still their silent ministries
Within our hearts have place,
As when on earth they walked with us
And met us face to face.

"Ours are they by an ownership
Nor time nor death can free;
For God hath given love to keep
Its own eternally."

JESSE LEE CUNINGGIM

By F. S. Love

When the news was flashed to the world that Jesse Lee Cuninggim had passed from this life thousands of his friends, and especially those in the ranks of the Methodist ministry, felt a sense of personal loss, but hearts were lifted in thanksgiving that they had lived and worked with this princely gentleman. Life moved on a higher level for them because of this man. Few men lived more unselfishly. His motive in living was service and he never allowed personal ambition to dictate his decisions or motivate his actions.

Dr. Cuninggim was the last president of Scarritt Bible and Training School and the directing genius in the relocation in Nashville, Tennessee, and the transition from Training School to College.

Dr. Cuninggim was born at Lenoir Institute, North Carolina, in 1870. He belonged to a family that was closely identified with the Methodist Church in eastern North Carolina. Early in life he turned to the Methodist ministry. His academic training was at the University of North Carolina and his theological training at Vanderbilt University. The liberal atmosphere of these schools was reflected in his thinking as well as in his creative work. His brief pastorate in North Carolina at Elizabeth City was highly successful as was an earlier venture as Presiding Elder in the Durham District. His finest work and his great achievement, a work that will continue across the years, was the founding and expansion of Scarritt College. He rendered a splendid service in the founding and directing the Correspondence School; the scope of work here was later developed into a Department of Ministerial Supply Training in connection with the Board of Education. It was at this point he returned to his brief experience in the pastorate. He was called from Elizabeth City to Southern Methodist University to the chair of Religious Education. From Dallas he was called to Scarritt Bible and Training School. The removal of the school to Nashville in 1924 was a significant event and the first step in Dr. Cuninggim's greatest work. The relationship to Scarritt College is strikingly told by an unidentified writer: "When it was suggested to Dr. Cuninggim that he allow his name to be presented as a candidate for the presidency of Scarritt College, he laughed at the idea, saying, 'You don't want me for the president of Scarritt, for in my judgment a program of missionary training for the whole Church should first of all be worked out, and the future of Scarritt should be decided as a part of that program.' Just such statesmanship was needed and Dr. Cuninggim's former field of service and his specific training with his Church-wide contacts, fitted him providentially for the new task to which he was called. He says in speaking of the strenuous and the difficult years that faced him as he undertook the reshaping of the plans and policy and program of the greater Scarritt, 'Our difficulties were great but God's wisdom was greater and his guidance was sufficient. He was with us all the way. I firmly believe in the providence of God. If I had not believed it before the experience of those three years would have taught me to believe in it then beyond the shadow of a doubt. Let me repeat one thing, I know there is such a thing as the providence of God."

A close friend and co-worker said of Scarritt's president when he thought of Scarritt he thought of Dr. Cuninggim—a personality identified with an institution as completely as to be one with it. He thought of him as a great administrator, a great teacher—one who could inspire others to do and be their best, and could kindle this inspiration from his own heart. He thought of one who could wait with great patience and equanimity the realization of long-cherished dreams for a greater, finer, more deeply spiritual institution, and as far as it is possible for an institution to be so, a true family of God in its daily life and constant self-expression. If the former Scarritt was but the lengthened shadow of Maria Layng Gibson, even as truly may it be said that the enlarged Scarritt is the lengthened shadow of its first president.

Perhaps no other man knew Dr. Cuninggim, the workman, as did Bishop Paul B. Kern, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Scarritt. In the funeral address he paid this tribute: "If you were to seek for the secret of Dr. Cuninggim's life you would not find it in some magnificent endowment of human qualities, evident as that was, but you would find it in the simple fact that years ago Christ came into his life and there set up an altar, and from that altar the radiance of a living presence shone with undiminished ray until the very end of his days. All human relationships that he knew grew out of this sense of an indwelling Christ. All of his deep interest in the Kingdom of God as a family came out of his keen realization that for him to live was Christ. All his faith, so steady, so unyielding, so Christ-grounded, grew out of this constant comradeship with a living Christ. I came upon the lines of a little poem by Paul Lawrence Dunbar which somehow I think he would like for me to say to you; I think he would have me say:

"When all is done, say not my day is o'er,
And that through night I seek a dimmer shore;
Say rather that my morn has just begun,
I greet the dawn and not a setting sun,
The all is done."

THOMAS EDWARD DAVIS

By Riley G. Taylor

Rev. Thomas Edward Davis was born on January 6, 1864, in Wicomico County, Maryland, the seventh son of William Sampson Davis and Phoebe Melvin Truitt Davis. His mother was left a widow while her children were still young, but by hard work and faith in God, was able to raise her family and educate them to become outstanding and respected members of their communities.

Rev. Davis attended Western Maryland College and Westminster Theological Seminary, graduating in 1888. In July of that same year he married Annie Rebecca Ames of Carlisle, Penna., whom he had met while she also was a student at Western Maryland College.

This marriage endured for 61 years, until the death of Mrs. Davis in 1949. This union was blessed with five children, two boys, both of whom are now doctors, and three girls.

Rev. Davis began his ministry in the New York Conference in 1888, and served in both the northern and southern conferences of The Methodist Church until he was superannuated in 1939. His last charge was in Vanceboro, North Carolina. He also served in High Point, Burlington, Enfield, Four Oaks, Bailey, Chadbourn, and Wanchese, to name but a few of him many charges. He was always interested in flowers and gardening, and was known for the many improvements in landscaping the parsonage grounds wherever he lived.

A great lover of children, Rev. Davis always felt that the education and training of young people was the greatest task of the church. In this effort he was greatly aided by his wife, who was beloved by the young people of every church they served.

Rev. Davis died February 14, 1951, in Richmond, Virginia, and is buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery. He is survived by five children, seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Although Rev. Davis was in many ways a stern and austere man, his devotion to his church, his principles, and his God will always be a wonderful example to all who were privileged to know and work with him.

"Servant of God well done,
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

GUY HAMILTON

By C. W. Wooten

The end of the earthly pilgrimage, for a faithful and devoted one, to his family, his church, and to all who came in contact with his Christian influence, came to Rev. Guy Hamilton on March 27, 1951, at the home of his sister, Miss Florence Hamilton, in Atlantic, North Carolina.

Guy Hamilton was born in Atlantic, North Carolina, on September 21, 1891, the son of Thomas and Sabra Robinson Hamilton. He was baptized and received into membership of the Atlantic Methodist Church on August 8, 1909. After graduating from the Atlantic High School, he attended and received the Bachelor of Arts degree from Trinity College; but desiring to make further study of the Bible, he remained there for another year, during which time he taught Greek in that college. He received the Bachelor of Divinity degree from the Divinity School of Boston University. He joined the Western North Carolina Conference in 1915, and served as pastor in the mountains of North Carolina for four years. At the annual North Carolina Conference of 1919, he applied for and received a transfer to this conference. He served as pastor of the Ocracoke Charge, the Atlantic Charge, the Riverside-Bridgeton Charge, and the Ayden Charge.

In March of 1921, during the time of his pastorate of the Riverside-Bridgeton Charge, Guy Hamilton was married to Miss Bertie May of New Bern, North Carolina. Shortly after their marriage, he and his bride made a tour of the Holy Lands, lasting for approximately one year. There were no children born of this union; however, they adopted a son, James Robert Hamilton.

Sometime just before the annual conference of 1932, Guy Hamilton suffered a nervous breakdown. Thus, he retired from the active ministry that year. He received treatment at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Morganton Hospital, and the N. C. State Hospital at Raleigh. The total time of his hospitalization, which was stretched over the last eighteen years of his life, was about four years. The remainder of his time, during the years of ill health, was spent with his sister in his home town, Atlantic.

He was survived by his wife, who has also passed away since his death; one son, James Robert Hamilton of Lake Junaluska, N. C.; two sisters, Miss Florence Hamilton, with whom he lived in Atlantic, N. C., and Mrs. Lucy H. Little of Greensboro, N. C.; one brother, Julian Hamilton of Beaufort, N. C.; and seven neices and nephews.

Funeral services were conducted from the home on the afternoon of March 29, 1951, by Rev. B. B. Slaughter, New Bern District Superintendent; Rev. C. M. Mitchell, a former pastor of the Atlantic Methodist Church; Rev. L. C. Chandler, pastor of the Atlantic Baptist Church; and the writer, present pastor of the Atlantic Methodist Church. His body was laid to rest in the family plot of the Atlantic Cemetery.

Guy Hamilton spent the last six years of his life in bed, being totally invalid. Sometimes when friends called, he was able to talk; but sometimes he wasn't. Nevertheless, to know him was to love him and all that he stood for. He loved his Bible so much that he had memorized certain portions of it. Among those selections, which he had memorized, of the scriptures were, "The Sermon on the Mount," the thirteenth and fifteenth chapters of "The First Epistle of Paul, the Apostle, to the Corinthians," most of the Psalms, and many other of the beautiful chapters of the Bible. Because of the sickness of his body and mind, sometimes he would forget the exact wording of the "Twenty-Third Psalm" and "The Lord's Prayer," but never did he forget, not even the punctuation, of the "One Hundred Third (103) Psalm." Almost until the very hour of his death, the saintly voice of Guy Hamilton was heard uttering these words:

"Bless the Lord, O my soul:
And all that is within me,
Bless his Holy Name."

This Psalm, in its entirety, fell from the lips of Guy Hamilton on the very day that his Master called him Home.

R. ERNEST ATKINSON

By Joseph F. White

Pastor, Pace Memorial Methodist Church, Richmond, Va.

A marvelous triumph it must be to meet Christ in Heaven on Sunday morning. This was the day He conquered death and gave to the world the assurance of a reality of Heaven.

R. Ernest Atkinson was greeted by Him on Sunday morning, June 3, 1951, in Paradise. Truly, the Redeemer was able to say: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant. Enter into the joy of thy Lord." He merited this, for his life was devoted to doing his Father's will.

He was born June 13, 1869, in Alabama. He received his training for the ministry at Trinity College, Durham, N. C.

The majority of his ministry was spent in the St. Louis Conference of Missouri. He later transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference, and spent the last years of his ministry in the North Carolina Conference. He retired from this conference in 1936 at Stedman, N. C.

His last years were spent in Richmond, Virginia. He was active in Pace Memorial Methodist Church, and taught the Mens' Bible Class. He was held in high esteem, and beloved by the class.

He impressed the writer by his great faith, and belief in the power of prayer.

His body sleeps in Richmond, Virginia, but his spirit lives with God. For him, we quote these very familiar words.

"There is no death! The stars go down
To rise upon some other shore,
And bright in heaven's jeweled crown
They shine for evermore."

ELIJAH L. STACK

By H. E. Spence

The subject of this sketch was born May 9, 1872, and died June 22, 1951, thus rounding out almost eight decades of a long, honorable and useful career. Brother Stack was born in Guilford County, the son of David T. Stack and Sarah Baxter Stack. He was born on a farm and spent his boyhood in this rural surrounding. His early training was secured at Rocky Knoll School, Jamestown Academy, Oak Ridge Military Institute, and Eastman Business College.

While in the employment of the B. F. Johnson Publishing Company of Richmond, Virginia, Brother Stack felt the urge to preach and determined to spend the remainder of his life in the ministry. He pursued his studies preparatory to this work in Ohio University. While there he was assistant pastor to a local church for a while and then served as pastor of two small churches. He thus was enabled to defray his expenses and pay for his own education. He pursued his graduate studies at this university also. He served nine years in the ministry in Ohio before returning to his native state, North Carolina. His desire to return to this state was augmented by the fact that his wife was also a North Carolinian. On September 26, 1900, he was married to Dora Lawrence, the daughter of the late Wesley Lawrence of Randolph County. She survives him to mourn his loss.

Dr. Stack's first assignment in the North Carolina Conference was at Lillington. He served in order the following charges: Parkton, Bynum, South Mills, Pasquotank Circuit, Manteo, Yanceyville, Roper, Bath and Carvers Creek Circuit. For several years his ministry was interrupted that he might take charge of the Odd Fellows Home at Goldsboro. At this place he rendered excellent service in helping to raise the debt with which the institution was encumbered. He retired in 1938 and lived in Washington, N. C., for five years. He then moved to Charlotte, North Carolina, where he spent the remainder of his days.

It is difficult to write accurately and freely about Brother Stack without writing in the first person. I knew him well. He was my Father's pastor on the South Mills Charge and during one year of his stay there he received the largest number of members into the church of any charge in the Conference. As Field Secretary of Sunday School work I had the privilege and pleasure of an extended association with him. In many ways he was a most remarkable man. He was thoroughly at home in the Sunday School, the pulpit, at a baseball game, on a fishing trip. Versatile, vivacious, energetic, good-humored, he made friends easily and held them through his essential qualities of a fine friendly disposition and noble character. Jesus spoke a parable to the effect that the Kingdom of Heaven is like unto a merchant-man. Brother Stack had the qualities of alertness, energy, unfeigned interest, sincere sympathy, and arduous application which characterize a successful merchant. Like a salesman he was always alive to every opportunity to make a sale—and with him it was selling shares in the kingdom of heaven. He passed up no opportunity to further the interests of Christ's kingdom.

Brother Stack was always keenly interested in folks and took great delight in associating with people both young and old. He always raised a garden and had a hobby of planting fruit trees everywhere he lived. Thus his interest extended in a very helpful way to his successors. Further than this, he always insisted that nature as manifested in trees and flowers was a constant reminder of the loving care of Him who clothed the grass of the field and adorned the lillies.

Our brother was the victim of a heart attack. He had become weakened by a long period of hospitalization and a severe operation. So his resistance was weakened and he succumbed. He remained mentally alert until the end.

One of the few remaining members of the Old Guard has passed from us. His was the type of ministry that maintained a happy balance between preaching and pastoral work. He was friendly to all and what we call a "good mixer." He was also an earnest and effective preacher of the Gospel. His preaching was not of the highly emotional type, yet his sincerity and enthusiasm caused men to respond to the Gospel call as he presented it to his congregations. I know of no better way to close this tribute than by quoting the old version of a well-known hymn:

"Servant of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ;
Thy battle's fought, thy victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy."

MRS. CLEATON OTIS ARMSTRONG

By W. A. Cade

Mrs. Delia Rice Armstrong departed this earthly life January 4, 1951, at the home of her son, Cleaton Otis Armstrong, Jr., in Atlanta, Georgia. Her funeral was conducted from the Ayden Methodist Church, and burial was in the Ayden cemetery. This was on the sixty-second anniversary of her birth, she having been born January 7, 1889, the daughter of Sidney Hudnell and Stanley Rice of Maribel, N. C.

She was married to Cleaton Otis Armstrong February 22, 1913. He died October 28, 1918 while serving his first pastorate at Stantonsburg, N. C. To this union two children were born. One died in childhood.

Mrs. Armstrong worked hard and heroically to maintain herself and to rear and educate her remaining child. In this she succeeded well. He in turn took his mother to his home and was her pride and comfort until she was called away to be reunited with her minister husband in the home not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

BERTIE MAY HAMILTON

By P. H. Duckwall

Born in Cope, S. C., March 31, 1891. Died June 25, 1951, at the age of 60 years, 2 months, and 25 days. Father—James R. May. Mother—Frances Strother. Married Rev. Guy Hamilton on March 4, 1922. Survived by one son, James R. Hamilton, of Lake Junaluska, N. C., two sisters, and one brother.

Mrs. Hamilton proved herself faithful as a member of her church, as a mother, parsonage wife, and as a registered nurse. At the time of her last illness she was associated with the Haywood County Hospital, Waynesville, N. C., as a supervisor of nurses. Her patience and confident trust during the painful months of her lingering illness bespoke a close acquaintance with her Saviour and God. At the time of her death she was a member of Long's Chapel Methodist Church, Lake Junaluska, N. C.

MRS. J. E. BRISTOWE

By A. L. Thompson

Mrs. Sadie Owen Bristowe died at Rex Hospital in Raleigh, N. C., on Saturday, December 30, 1950. She was 76 years old.

Mrs. Bristowe was the daughter of John and Harriet Owen of Wayne County, N. C., and was born on December 2, 1874. She lived in Wayne County until August 1900 when she was married to the late Rev. James E. Bristowe, an honored member of the North Carolina Conference. After his death in 1911, she made her home in Washington, N. C., until she came to Raleigh to live three years before her death.

She was brought to Raleigh by Mrs. Sam Jones, a step-granddaughter who had helped to care for her since 1925. In a most beautiful manner Mrs. Jones cared for her in the last years of her life. For many weeks before her death, she was a patient at Rex Hospital and Mrs. Jones ministered to her daily there.

Funeral services were held in the home of Mrs. B. Warren Shelton of Washington, N. C., on January 1, 1951, and were conducted by Rev. D. E. Earnhardt, minister of the First Methodist Church of Washington assisted by Rev. Stephen Gardner of the Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Bristowe left no close relatives. Surviving are three nephews, Julian and Paul Waters of Kinston, N. C., and George Waters of New Bern, N. C., and one niece, Mrs. Killingsworth of Kinston, N. C.

It has been said of Mrs. Bristowe that, as a good and faithful wife of one of our ministers, she went about doing good. She has entered into the rest promised the children of God.

MRS. D. A. WATKINS

By Rev. J. W. Hoyle, Sr.

Mrs. Lula Patterson Watkins, beloved long time resident of Laurel Hill, died Nov. 23rd, 1950, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Speller, in Southern Pines. She was buried on her seventy-fifth birthday, Nov. 24th.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. V. Harris, pastor of the Laurel Hill Methodist Church, assisted by Rev. J. W. Hoyle, life-long friend of the family. Interment was in Hillside Cemetery.

Mrs. Watkins was the widow of the late Rev. D. A. Watkins, for three years pastor of the Laurel Hill Charge and for many more years part-time resident of Laurel Hill. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Robert Speller of Southern Pines, a step-daughter, Miss Bertie Watkins, of the Laurel Hill home, a step-son, Marvin Watkins of Leland, two grandsons, Robert Speller, Jr., and John Speller, of Southern Pines; a sister, Mrs. Kate Whitt of Lynchburg, Va.; a brother, Calvin Patterson, of Norfolk, Va.; eight step-grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

At the funeral Rev. J. W. Hoyle paid "a glowing tribute to Mrs. Watkins and her long life of unselfish service. He said that her riches were not measured by dollars but by her good deeds and Christian life. She gave generously of her time and money and never discriminated between any because of race, color, creed or nationality."

Mrs. Watkins was well-known all over Scotland County. In 1918, she was an angel of mercy to the hundreds dangerously ill in the flu epidemic. She went anywhere and everywhere, when many other people were afraid of exposure to the disease.

Rev. Mr. Watkins retired in 1928, and he and Mrs. Watkins moved to Durham where their daughter, Mrs. Speller, attended Duke University.

In 1931, Rev. Mr. Watkins died and she went to California and later to New York, before returning to North Carolina. She lived for a time with her sister, Mrs. Minnie Ferguson, at Jackson Springs, and later with her step-son in Leland.

In 1940, Mrs. Speller bought a home for her mother in Laurel Hill where she lived till she moved to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Speller in Southern Pines.

A number of ministerial friends and a host of other long-time admirers attending the funeral, attested to her long and useful life.

Sessions of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church

The North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church was composed of the North Carolina Conference of the former M. E. Church, South, and parts of the North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church and the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church. The former Methodist Episcopal Church gave to the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church 9 preachers, 11 charges and 1,837 members; the former Methodist Protestant Church 23 preachers, 20 charges and 9,152 members; the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 273 preachers, 226 charges and 132,735 members.

NOTE: The Distributing Committee at the 1940 session of the Western North Carolina Conference added three retired ministers of the former Methodist Protestant Church to the roll of the North Carolina Conference. The names of these preachers should have been included in 1939 in the list of preachers coming into the North Carolina Conference from the former Methodist Protestant Church.
